

On motion, RESOLVED, That col. Henry Hollingsworth make two hundred gun-barrels of at least one inch in the bore, and three feet six inches in length, drawbored; and that Mr. Elisha Winters mount and stock and fit and compleat the same with locks and swivels, as soon as may be, for the public use, for which they shall be paid a reasonable price.

On motion of Mr. Samuel Chase (in obedience as he conceived to the instructions of Anne-Arundel county) the question was put, That all public and private interest of monies cease and determine during this time of general distress, such monies only to be excepted as have been actually lent within the three last months, which shall be proved by the lender to have been lent within the time above mentioned, to the satisfaction of such persons as shall be appointed to determine the same, and that country produce be a lawful tender for the interest of the same, at the market price, to be regulated by two unexceptionable freeholders upon oath, one to be appointed by each party? Carried in the negative.

On motion, RESOLVED, That the committees of observation in the several counties of this province forbear to require of any non-affociator any bond, or further to proceed against any non-affociator for not giving bond according to the resolutions of December last, this Convention having made more effectual provisions for the public security.

On motion, the question was put, That no person or persons in the community be executed for the payment of any debts, public or private, unless it is left in the option of the debtor to pay in the produce of the country at a reasonable price, to be ascertained by the county committees respectively? Carried in the negative.

On motion, the question was put, That a sum of money not exceeding five hundred pounds for Kent county be issued, from the public treasury, for the purpose of answering the present necessities of the pensioners, Kent county aforesaid giving sufficient security.
