

kind and value of those that may be delivered to him, and the servants that may remain alive and in servitude as well clothed as he receives them.

“ And if it should so happen that the said Elisha Winters should chuse to purchase the whole property, that he shall have a right to do it on paying the sum on which he is to pay interest as aforesaid, and the then value of the servants in proportion to their cost and the time they may have to serve respectively, in good muskets fitted as aforesaid, in monthly deliveries of at least one hundred and twenty-five per month, and at the price aforesaid, and if it should be in his power to make more, that he ought to deliver and the public ought to receive them.

“ Your committee beg leave further to report to your honourable house, that upon enquiry they find that the said Elisha Winters has delivered muskets over and above the quantity stipulated to be delivered to this time by his present subsisting contract with the public, and that the said contract ought not to be binding on the said Elisha Winters longer than the commencement of a contract that may be entered into in consequence of this report.

“ And your committee are further of opinion, that such gun-barrels as shall hereafter be furnished by Henry Hollingsworth of Cæcil county, in consequence of his present or a future contract, ought to be delivered by him at his works to the said Elisha Winters, to be accounted for at the rate of twenty shillings common money per barrel.

“ All which your committee beg leave to submit to the consideration of your honourable house.

“ Signed by order of the committee,
