

T H U R S D A Y, August 15, 1776.

CONVENTION met. All members present as on yesterday. The proceedings of yesterday were read. Mr. Robert Goldborough, Mr. James Murray, Mr. John Ennalls, and Mr. Joseph Ennalls, jun. delegates returned for Dorchester county; Mr. Gustavus Scott, Mr. George Scott, Mr. William Horsey, and Mr. Henry Lowes, delegates returned for Somerset county; Mr. Peter Chaille, Mr. Smith Bishop, Mr. Samuel Handy, and Mr. John Purnell Robins, delegates returned for Worcester county; and Mr. Pollard Edmondson and Mr. John Gibson, delegates returned for Talbot county, appeared and took their seats in the house.

Mr. Samuel Chafe brings in and delivers to Mr. President a report from the committee of elections, which was read in the following words:

“The committee of elections beg leave to report, That by the return of the election for Saint Mary's county, Richard Barnes, Ignatius Fenwick, George Plater, and Jeremiah Jordan, Esquires, were elected agreeable to the resolve and direction of the last Convention.

“That by the return for Charles county, the same was partly held at the place directed by the last Convention, and partly at another place, by the unanimous consent of the voters, and that Robert T. Hooe, John Dent, Thomas Semmes, and John Parnham, Esquires, were elected for the said county.

“That by the return for Calvert county, Benjamin Mackall, Charles Grahame, William Fitzhugh, and John Mackall, Esquires, were duly elected agreeable to the resolve and direction of the last Convention.

“That Walter Bowie, Luke Marbury, Osborn Sprigg, and Thomas Sim Lee, Esquires, are returned by Jeremiah Magruder, Humphrey Belt, and Thomas Boyd, as duly elected for Prince-George's county.

“That the inhabitants of the county agreed, that every taxable bearing arms, being an inhabitant of the county, had an undoubted right to vote for representatives at this time of public calamity; that the judges appointed declined to act, and that they appointed the judges who made the return aforesaid.

That by the return of the election for Anne-Arundel county, Rezin Hammond, Brice Thomas Beale Worthington, Charles Carroll, barrister, and Samuel Chafe, Esquires, were elected agreeable to the resolve and direction of the last Convention.

“That for the lower district of Frederick county, Thomas Sprigg Wootton, Jonathan Wilson, William Bayly, jun. and Eliza Williams, Esquires, are returned, by judges appointed by the committee of that district, duly elected by a majority of voters, resident of the district, and who had armed in defence of the country.

“That by the return for the middle district of Frederick county, Adam Fischer, Upton Sheredine, Christopher Edelen, and David Schriver, Esquires, were elected agreeable to the resolve and direction of the last Convention.

“That by the return for the upper district of Frederick county, Samuel Beall, Samuel Hughs, John Stull, and Henry Schnebely, Esquires, were duly elected.

“That by the return from Baltimore county, Charles Ridgely, Thomas Cockey Deye, John Stevenson, and Peter Shepherd, Esquires, were duly elected.

“That by the return from Baltimore town, John Smith, and Jeremiah Townly Chafe, Esquires, were duly elected.

“That by the return from Harford county, Jacob Bond, Henry Wilson, jun. John Love, and John Archer, Esquires, were duly elected.

“That by the return from Cæcil county, Joseph Gilpin, Patrick Ewing, David Smith, and Benjamin Brevard, Esquires, were duly elected.

“That by the return from Talbot county, Pollard Edmondson, John Gibson, Matthew Tilghman, and James Lloyd Chamberlaine, Esquires, were duly elected.

“That by the return from Caroline county, Nathaniel Potter, William Richardson, Richard Mason, and Henry Dickinson, Esquires, were duly elected.

“That by the return for the city of Annapolis, William Paca and Charles Carroll of Carrollton, Esquires, were duly elected.

“That by the return for Dorchester county, Robert Goldborough, James Murray, John Ennalls, and Joseph Ennalls, jun. Esquires, were duly elected.

“That by the return for Somerset county, Gustavus Scott, George Scott, William Horsey, and Henry Lowes, Esquires, were duly elected.

“Signed per order of the committee,

NICHOLAS HARWOOD, clk.”

On