also to discharge the principal thereof, within vened. fifteen years from the time of contracting the same, and the taxes laid for this purpose shall liable, in any civil action or criminal prosecunot be repealed or applied to any other object tion whatever, for words spoken in debate. until the said debt and the interest thereon shall be fully discharged, and the amount of debts so quire, on the oath of witnesses, into all comcontracted and remaining unpaid shall never ex- plaints, grievances and offences, as the Grand ceed one hundred thousand dollars. The credit Inquest of the State, and may commit any perof the State shall not, in any manner, be given son for any crime to the public jail, there to or loaned to or in aid of any individual, associ- remain until discharged by due course of lawation or corporation, nor shall the General As- they may examine and pass all accounts of sembly have the power, in any mode, to involve the State, relating either in the collection or the State in the construction of works of Inter- expenditure of the revenue, and appoint audinal Improvement, or in any enterprise which tors to state and adjust the same—they may shall involve the faith or credit of the State, or call for all public or official papers and records, make any appropriations therefor. And they and send for persons whom they may judge shall not use or appropriate the proceeds of the Internal Improvement companies, or of the State tax now levied or which may hereafter be levied, to pay off the public debt, to any other purpose, until the interest and debt are fully paid, or the sinking fund shall be equal! to the amount of the outstanding debt, but the Legislature may, without laying a tax, borrow an amount never to exceed fifty thousand dollars, to meet temporary deficiencies in the Treasury, and may contract debts to any amount ator, or in case of a tie between two or more that may be necessary for the defence of the such qualified persons, a warrant of election State.

Sec. 24. No senator or delegate, after qualifying as such, shall, during the term for which by the person making it, or if such death oche was elected, be eligible to any office which | cur during the legislative recess and more than shall have been created, or the salary or profits of which shall have been increased, during such term, or shall, during said term, hold any office or receive the salary or profits of any office, under the appointment of the Executive or Legislature.

Sec. 25. Each House may punish, by imprisonment, during the session of the General Assembly, any person not a member, for disrespectful or disorderly behaviour in its presence, or for obstructing any of its proceedings or any of its officers in the execution of their duties; provided, such imprisonment shall not, at any one time, exceed ten days.

Sec. 26. The members of each House shall, in all cases, except treason, felony or other criminal offence, be privileged from arrest during their attendance at the session of the General Assembly, and in going to and returning from the same, allowing one day for every thirty miles such member may reside from the

the interest on such debt as it falls due, and place at which the General Assembly is con-

Sec. 27. No senator or delegate shall be

Sec. 28. The House of Delegates may innecessary in the course of their inquiries concerning affairs relating to the public interest, and may direct all office bonds which shall be made payable to the State, to be sued for any breach of duly.

Sec. 29. In case of death, disqualification, resignation, refusal to act, expulsion or removal from the county or city for which he shall have been elected, of any person who shall have been chosen as a delegate or senshall be issued by the Speaker of the House Sec. 23. No extra compensation shall be of Delegates or President of the Senate, as granted or allowed by the General Assembly to the case may be, for the election of another any public officer, agent, servant or contractor person in his place, of which election, not after the services shall have been rendered or less than ten days' notice shall be given exthe contract entered into. Nor shall the salary clusive of the day of the publication of the or compensation of any public officer be in- notice and of the day of election; and in case creased or diminished during his term of office. of such resignation or refusal to act, being communicated, in writing, to the Governor, ten days before its termination, it shall be the duty of the Governor to issue a warrant of election to supply the vacancy thus created in the same manner that the said Speaker or President might have done during the session of the Legislature; provided, however, that unless a meeting of the General Assembly may intervene, the election thus ordered to fill such vacancy shall be held on the day of the ensuing election for delegates and senators.

Sec. 30. The senators and delegates shall receive a per diem of four dollars and such mileage as may be allowed by law, and the presiding officer of each House shall be allowed an addition of one dollar per day. No book or other printed matter not appertaining to the business of the session, shall be purchased or subscribed for, for the use of the members, or be distributed among them, at the public expense.

Sec. 31. No law passed by the General As-