the fifth, one person from among those learned justices of the peace in the said city, and shall in the law, having been admitted to practice in have jurisdiction in all applications for the benthis State, and who shall have been a citizen efit of the insolvent laws of this State, and of this State at least five years, and above the the supervision and control of the Trustees age of thirty years at the time of his election, thereof. and a resident of the Judicial Circuit to be Judge thereof; the said judges shall be styled for the city of Baltimore, another court of law, Circuit Judges, and shall respectively hold a to be styled the Superior Court of Baltimore term of their courts at least twice in each year, city, which shall have jurisdiction over all or oftener if required by law, in each county suits where the debt or damage claimed shall composing their respective circuits; and the said exceed the sum of five hundred dollars, and in courts shall be called Circuit Courts for the case any plaint iff or plaintiffs shall recover county in which they may be held, and shall less than the sum or value of five hundred dolhave, and exercise in the several counties of lars, he or they, shall be allowed or adjudged this State, all the power, authority and jutis diction which the county courts of this State now have, and exercise, or which may hereafter be prescribed by law, and the said judges in their respective circuits shall have and exercise all the power, authority and jurisdiction of the present Court of Chancery of Maryland; ministration of justice in said court.

the qualified voters of the said circuits, and scribed by law. shall hold their offices for the term of ten years, Sec. 13. There shall also be a Criminal removable for misbehaviour, on conviction in Court for the city of Baltimore, to be styled any court of law, or by the Governor upon the the Criminal Court of Baltimore, which shall address of the General Assembly, provided that consist of one judge, who shall also be elected two-thirds of the members of each House shall by the legal and qualified voters of the said concur in such address; and the said judges city, and who shall have and exercise all the shall each receive a salary of two thousand jurisdict on now exercised by Baltimore City dollars a year, and the same shall not be in- Court, and the said judge shall receive a salary creased or diminished during the time of their of two thousand dollars a year, shall be subcontinuance in office; and no judge of any ject to the provisions of this constitution with fee, commission or reward, in addition thereto, judges' term of office, and removal therefrom. for the performance of any judicial duty. Sec. 14. There shall be in each county a dred dollars; and shall also have jurisdiction term of six years from the time of his election, ed, for each of the said Judicial circuits, except in all cases of appeal from the judgment of Sec 11. There shall also be established to pay costs in the discretion of the court. The said court shall also have jurisdiction as a court of equity within the limits of the said city, and in all other civil cases which have not been heretofore assigned to the Court of Common Pleas.

Sec. 12. Each of the said two courts shall Provided, nevertheless, that Baltimore County consist of one judge, who shall be elected Court may hold its sittings within the limits of by the legal and qualified voters of the said the city of Baltimore until provision shall be city, and shall hold his office for the term of made by law for the location of a county seat, ten years, subject to the provisions of this within the limits of the said county proper, constitution, with regard to the election and and the erection of a court house and all other qualification of judges, and their removal from appropriate buildings, for the convenient ad- office; and the salary of each of the said judges shall be twenty-five hundred dollars a Sec. 9. The judges of the several judicial year, and the Legislature shall, whenever it circuits shall be citizens of the United States, may think the same proper and expedient, and shall have resided five years in this State, provide, by law, another court for the city of and two years in the judicial circuit for which Baltimore, to consist of one judge, to be elected they may be respectively elected, next before by the qualified voters of the said city, who the time of their election, and shall reside there-shall be subject to the same constitutional in, while they continue to act as judges; they provisions, hold his office for the same term shall be taken from among those who, having of years, and receive the same compensation the other qualifications herein prescribed, are as the judge of the Court of Common Pleas most distinguished for integrity, wisdom and of the said city; and the said court shall have sound legal knowledge, and shall be elected by such jurisdiction and powers as may be pre-court in this State, shall receive any perquisite, regard to the election and qualification of

Sec. 10. There shall be established for the clerk of the Circuit Court, who shall be elected city of Baltimore, one court of law, to be styl- by the qualified voters of each county, and ed "The Court of Common Pleas," which the person receiving the greatest number of shall have civil jurisdiction in all suits, where votes shall be declared and returned duly the debt or damage claimed shall be over one elected clerk of said Circuit Court for the hundred dollars, and shall not exceed five hun-said county, and shall hold his office for the