

On Mr. Spencer's amendment concerning explanations on points of law in criminal trials,	194	On striking out 16th section of the Legislative Report,	329
On Mr. Hicks' amendment prohibiting members of the Convention from holding office,	205	On Mr. Gwinn's substitute,	332
On Mr. Jenifer's amendment to the same effect as to practicing lawyers,	206	On Mr. Weems' motion to strike out certain words from 18th section of said Report,	335
On the amendment of Mr. Brent, of Baltimore city, to the same effect, touching Judges, &c.,	206	On Mr. Donaldson's amendment concerning the Public Debt,	355
On Mr. Ridgely's amendment as to religious tests,	214	On the several branches of Mr. George's amendment on the same subject,	355
On Mr. Randall's amendment on the same subject,	216	On the several branches of Mr. Neill's order, giving certain instructions to the committee on Representation,	372, 373
On Mr. Dorsey's amendment on the same subject,	216	On laying on the table the motion to re-consider the vote on the first branch of the said order,	374
On Mr. John Newcomer's motion to strike out 34th article of Bill of Rights,	217	On the motion for leave to renew the motion to re-consider,	375
On Mr. Dashiell's amendment to Preamble of Bill of Rights,	238	On said renewed motion,	375
On Mr. Sprigg's amendment touching sessions of the Legislature,	266	On the two branches of Mr. Jacobs' amendment concerning the Public Debt, &c.,	378, 379
On the amendment of Mr. Brent, of Charles, on the same subject,	267	On striking out 31st section of the Legislative Report,	386
On Mr. Spencer's amendment on the same subject,	267	On the amendment of Mr. Chandler concerning the eligibility of Ministers, &c., to seats in the Legislature,	394
On Mr. Phelps' amendment on the same subject,	267	On re-considering the vote on the 21st section of the Legislative Report,	395
On Mr. Wells' amendment on the same subject,	268	On the second branch of the amendment as to Levy Courts,	398
On Mr. McHenry's amendment on the same subject,	268	On the amendment of Mr. Phelps in relation to duelling,	399
On Mr. Spencer's amendment on the same subject,	281, 282	On the amendment of Mr. Fitzpatrick concerning Homestead Exemptions,	401
On Mr. John Newcomer's amendment on the same subject,	282	On the exemption of certain designated amounts,	402
On seconding the Previous Question,	289	On laying the subject-matter of Homestead Exemption on the table,	402, 406, 407
On second section of the Legislative Report, as amended,	290	On Mr. Ridgely's amendment on the same subject,	407, 409
On motion to re-consider vote striking out certain words from the third section of the Legislative Report,	296	On the amendment of Mr. Dent,	408
On Mr. Spencer's amendment as to time of meeting of the Legislature,	296	On re-considering Mr. Ridgely's amendment,	410
On Mr. Wells' amendment as to sessions of the Legislature,	301	On Mr. Ridgely's amendment,	411
On Mr. Thomas' amendment on the same subject,	302	On the article as amended,	411
On the first branch of the amendment of Mr. Stewart, of Caroline, concerning the form in which Bills shall be passed,	314	On Mr. McHenry's amendment concerning the Public Debt,	423
On another branch of the same amendment, as to the form of revising or amending laws,	318	On Mr. Constable's amendment on the same subject,	424
On laying on the table Mr. Kilgour's order for adjournment in honor of Washington's birth-day,	325	On Mr. Chambers', of Kent, amendment on the same subject,	424
On the adoption of the said order,	326	On Mr. Donaldson's amendment on the same subject,	424
On the four several branches of Mr. Schrey's amendment to Legislative Report, concerning the codification of the laws and the simplification of pleadings,	326, 327	On Mr. Davis' amendment concerning appropriations of money for Education,	425
		On Mr. Merrick's motion to make the Representation Question the Special Order,	429
		On Mr. Kilgour's do.,	429