So the Convention refused to suspend the rule.

The Convention then resumed the consideration of the unfinished order of the day, being the report of the committee on the judiciary.

Mr. DAVIS moved to postpone the consideration of the order of the day, and take up for consideration the report of the committee on education.

It was determined in the negative.

Mr. DAVIS moved for the yeas and nays,

Which motion was not sustained.

Mr. McHENRY, from committee No. 7, submitted the following

REPORT :

Section 1st. On the first Wednesday of November eighteen hundred and fifty-one, and the same day every second year thereafter, the qualified voters of each county shall, by general ticket, elect from amongst themselves, the same number of persons, to constitute the board of commissioners for such county as it may then be entitled to representatives in both houses of the General Assembly. The term of service of these commissioners shall commence on the first Tuesday in January next succeeding their election, and shall continue for two years thereafter or until their successors shall have entered on the discharge of their duties. Each such board of commissioners shall possess all the powers and perform all the duties heretofore possessed and performed by the commissioners or levy court of the county until otherwise provided by law, and it shall be the duty of the General Assembly, at its first session after the adoption of this Constitution to pass an act, prescribing and defining the powers and duties of the boards of commissioners, so as to render these uniform throughout the State. The Legislature shall confer on these boards full power to regulate the municipal affairs of the respective counties, including the opening, altering and closing of county roads, the building of county bridges and edifices and the management and control of all county property, together with such additional local legislative and administrative powers as may be deemed expedient.

Sec. 2d. Every commissioner of a county shall receive out of the county treasury three dollars per diem, besides three cents for each mile travelled over in going to and returning from the county seat, for each day of his attendance at the sittings of his board.

Sec. 3d. The commissioners of each county, as soon as may be, after their first election, under this Constitution shall proceed to divide such county into election districts compact in form and nearly equal in size, so that no such district shall contain more than five hundred voters. A distinct description of the metes and bounds of the districts so established shall be recorded in the office of each board and published for the information of the inhabitants of the county. And whenever, after any election, it shall appear that
