ERRATA. In the remarks of Mr. JOHN DENNIS, of the third of April, published in vol. ii, No. 17, the following errors appeared:

In the second column, fifth paragraph, "controversy" is used for "courtesy." In the sixth "unfitted" for "unsettled." In the eighth, "triflingly" for "triplingly." In the ninth, "hisses" is substituted for "lines." In the tenth, "where" ought to have been, and not "when." At the close of the eleventh it should be "times." In the twelfth, it should be "individuality" and not "identity." In the sixteenth, it should be "Solons;" and the latin word, at the close of the same paragraph, should be "ærum" In the last column, twenty-third paragraph, "wish" should have been "lust," and "pained" should be "poised."

MONDAY, May 12th, 1851.

The Convention met at nine o'clock.

Prayer was made by the Rev. Mr. GRIFFITH.

The proceedings of Saturday were read.

Mr. WELLS, chairman of the committee on accounts, stated that the journal of accounts had been closed, and therefore asked that the committee be discharged from further the consideration thereof.

On the question being taken on discharging the committee, it was Determined in the affirmative.

The PRESIDENT presented several accounts against the Convention.

Which were read,

And laid on the table.

Mr. DONALDSON, chairman of the select com-
