THE LATE REBEL RAID.

On motion of Mr. PUGH,
Ordered, That the thanks of this Convention be tendered to the President, and to Messrs. Scott, Earle, Murray, Dent, Edelen, Mitchell, and other members of the Convention for remaining at Annapolis during the present raid, and by their presence keeping alive the legal existence of this Convention.

On motion of Mr. HATCH,
Ordered, That the thanks of this Convention (representing as it does the people of Maryland) are hereby tendered to the old citizen and patriot of Baltimore county, Ishmael Day, for the heroic and gallant act in shooting down the traitor who dared to pull down the country's flag, which he had raised as an evidence of his loyalty and patriotism, which act of daring heroism meets the approbation of the heart and conscience of every loyal citizen of Maryland.

On motion of Mr. BARRON,
Ordered, That it be entered on the journal that John Barron would have been in his seat the last week, but for the thieves and trunk robbers invading Maryland.

Mr. SCHLEY submitted the following:
Ordered, That this Convention, representing the people of Maryland, hereby respectfully request the President of the United States and the Commandants of the Military Departments in which Maryland is included, as an act of justice and propriety, to assess upon known sympathizers with the rebellion, resident in this State, the total amount of all losses and spoliation sustained by loyal citizens of the United States resident in this State, by reason of the recent rebel raid, to compensate loyal sufferers.

Mr. DENT called for the yeas and nays, which were ordered.

The question being then taken, by yeas and nays, it resulted—yeas 83; nays 17—as follows:

Yeas—Messrs. Goldsborough, President; Abbott, Annan, Audoun, Barron, Carter, Cushing, Daniel, Davis, of Washington, Earle, Ecker, Galloway, Hatch, Hopkins, Hopper, King, Larsh, Markey, McComas, Mullikin,
