

28. Where attachments shall be issued, in the county and provincial court against the same person, upon application made to the provincial court or any one justice thereof, a certiorari shall issue to remove the proceedings of the county court before the provincial court, and proceed therein, and the trustees appointed by that court shall be invested with the personal estate and papers, as if the same had been seized by virtue of the attachment issued out of the provincial court; and where attachments shall issue out of the provincial court and any county court, to the sheriff of one and the same county, the sheriff shall in such case execute that writ only that comes first to his hands.—Ibid. § 15.

29. Before any trustee shall execute any of the powers given by this act (other than giving notice of the appointment as aforesaid) he shall take his oath, or affirmation, before some provincial or county justice, well and truly to execute the trust reposed in him, and the justice administering the same, shall endorse and sign a certificate thereof on the said trustees commission.—Ibid. § 16.

30. When any attachment shall be issued in virtue of this act, upon application made by any creditor to a justice of the provincial or county court, such justice shall, on oath or affirmation, made by the creditor, that he verily believes, or has good reason to suspect, that such unsafe person is indebted to, or holds goods or effects in his or her hands, of the person against whom the said attachment shall have issued, to the value specified in such oath, give an order or warrant under his hand, setting forth such oath, and the sum or value of the debt or goods believed to be due or held, directed to the clerk of the provincial or county court where such unsafe person shall reside, to issue a writ of trespass upon the case, against such unsafe person, to answer unto the trustees; and the said clerk shall endorse on the writ, that the sheriff shall hold the defendant to bail in double the sum in the said warrant, which endorsement the sheriff shall comply with, and the said defendant shall give special bail to such writ; and the proceedings thereon shall be as good in law, as if the plaintiffs were particularly named: And the trustees when appointed under the said attachment, shall and may declare and proceed to issue judgment and execution in the cause.—Ibid. § 17.

31. But if the defendant in such case give bail and judgment at the appearance court, he shall not be burthened with the plaintiff's costs.—Ibid. § 18.

32. This act shall be construed beneficially for the creditors in all courts of justice within this province.—Ibid. § 21.

33. In case any person of full age, residing out of this state, is or shall be entitled to any lands or tenements lying in this state by hereditary descent, or by devise, and the person from whom such lands descended,
