

certificate of the governor, chief magistrate or notary public of such state, that the said judge hath authority to administer such oath, &c.—
Ibid. § 2.

36. Upon the issuing of every attachment as aforesaid, there shall be therewith issued a writ of capias ad respondendum against the defendant, and a declaration or short note, expressing the plaintiff's cause of action, shall be filed, and a copy thereof sent with the writ, to be set up at the court-house door by the sheriff.—Ibid. § 3.

37. To every attachment issued in pursuance of this act the garnishee may plead in behalf of the defendant such plea or pleas as the said defendant might or could do if he had been taken by the sheriff under the writ of capias ad respondendum issued as aforesaid, and had accordingly appeared to the same.—Ibid. § 4.

38. In all cases of attachments it shall be lawful for the plaintiff to exhibit interrogatories, in writing to the garnishee aforesaid, who shall, by rule of court, answer each and every of the interrogatories aforesaid, touching the property of the defendant in his possession or charge, or by him owing, at the time of serving such writ of attachment, or at any other time; and if such garnishee shall neglect so to do, the court are directed to adjudge that such garnishee hath in his possession property of the defendant, or is indebted to such defendant, to an amount sufficient to pay the debt, damages and interest, of said plaintiff, and costs; and execution shall issue as in other cases of condemnation in the hands of garnishees.—Ibid. § 5.

39. If any plaintiff in any writ of attachment, or any person for him, shall make oath, &c. that he verily beleives that the person against whom such attachment shall be directed to be served as garnishee hath property belonging to the defendant in his hands and possession, or under his care, or is indebted to the defendant in any sum of money, although the same shall not then be due, and that he verily believes that he has just cause to fear that such person is about to depart and remove from the county where he resides, it shall be lawful for the clerk of the court where such attachment issues, on the affidavit being filed, to cause to be interted in the body of such attachment a clause of Capias ad Respondendum against such person as garnishee, pursuant to the nature of the plaintiff's claim, and he shall be held to bail to appear at court, and to make answers as by this act is directed, and further, to render his body to prison, or pay the condemnation money, if judgment shall pass against him—
