

17. Every inspector shall be allowed 1d. current money per barrel for storage, and if upon an appeal and review as aforesaid, the judgment of the inspector shall be confirmed, the person appealing shall pay the expence of such storage, and shall also pay the same if an appeal shall not be prosecuted; and if the judgment of the said inspector shall be reversed, he shall forfeit his charge and expence of the said storage.—Ibid. § 11.

18. The said inspector of salted provisions, for his trouble, shall receive 2d. current money, for each barrel by him reviewed.—ibid. § 12.

19. It shall not be lawful for any person to export, ship or lade, on board of any ship or vessel, for exportation, out of this state, any of the casks or barrels of the said salted provisions, so marked with a broad arrow, or to sell, export, ship or lade, on board of any ship or vessel for exportation, any of the casks or barrels of the salted provisions not examined and branded as aforesaid, from out of Patapsco river, on pain of forfeiture of 50s. current money for each and every barrel so exported or laden on board of any ship or other vessel for exportation.—ibid. § 13.

20. For the oath required to be taken by the inspector, on his appointment, see oath of office, Art. 39.

21. No inspector of salted provisions shall purchase, directly or indirectly, any salted beef, &c. by him condemned, or any salted provisions, other than for his own family use, under the penalty of 40s. current money for each barrel by him purchased.—ibid. § 15.

22. If any person shall alter the mark stamped on any barrel of salted provisions by any inspector, or shall mark or brand any barrel of salted provisions which hath not been inspected, with any mark or brand similar to, or in imitation of the inspector's said mark or brand, or after the said inspector shall have passed any barrel of salted provisions as merchantable, shall pack into the cask which contains the same, any other salted provisions, or, after any barrel of salted provisions shall be branded with a broad arrow, shall unpack and repack the same into other casks or packages, for exportation out of this state, such person shall forfeit 5l. current money for every barrel.—ibid. § 16.

23. The said commissioners, or the major part of them, shall, at any time, displace or remove the said officer from his office, on seeing cause, and shall nominate and appoint another fit person to such office, during the residue of the year, who shall have power to execute the same office, according to the directions of this act, on his taking the said oath of office.—ibid. § 17.

24. Before any of the said officers shall enter upon the execution of their respective offices, they shall take the several oaths to government appointed by law.—ibid. § 18.

25. The
