

act, but shall cause the same to be marked on the bilge with a broad arrow, or secure it for a future examination if required; which the owner shall procure to be made within the space of 4 days, and the inspector shall demand and receive from the owner or owners thereof, the same rates and prices as if the same had been branded.—ibid. §. 7.

42. When any person shall think himself aggrieved through the judgment or want of skill of the said inspector, in rejecting the said salted provisions as unmerchantable, it shall be lawful for such person to apply to a justice of the peace, who shall, at the charge of the complainant, issue his warrant, directed to 3 indifferent persons well skilled in the goodness, quality and well curing of salted beef, &c. of every kind, to review and examine the same; which said 3 persons so appointed, shall take the oath or affirmation, as by this act is herein after directed to be taken by every inspector of salted provisions, and shall carefully view and examine the same, and if they, or any two of them, shall pass and declare the same to be merchantable, then and in such case the said inspector shall erase out the broad arrow, and put such brand on the said salted provisions as they, or any two of them, shall adjudge and determine, and repay to the said complainant the said costs; but if on such review the judgment of the said inspector shall be confirmed, the said owner shall pay the cost of such review.—ibid. §. 8.

43. Every inspector shall be allowed 1d. current money per barrel for storage, if stored, and if upon an appeal and review, the judgment of the inspector shall be confirmed, the person appealing shall pay the expence of such storage, and shall also pay the same if an appeal shall not be prosecuted, and if the judgment of the said inspector shall be reversed, he shall forfeit his charge and expence of the said storage.—ibid. §. 9.

44. The said inspector, for his trouble, shall receive 2d. current money for each barrel by him reviewed.—ibid. §. 10.

45. It shall not be lawful for any person to export, ship, or lade on board of any ship or vessel for exportation out of this state, any of the casks or barrels of the said salted provisions so marked with a broad arrow, or to sell, export, ship, or lade on board of any ship or vessel for exportation, any of the casks or barrels of the salted provisions not examined and branded as aforesaid, from out of Potowmack river, on pain of forfeiture of 50s. current money for each and every barrel so exported, &c.—ibid. §. 11.

46. For the oath, &c. to be taken by the inspector on his appointment.—See oath of office. Art. 42.

47. No inspector shall purchase, directly or indirectly, any salted beef, &c. by him condemned, or any salted provisions, whatever, other than
