

churches and chapels, and the lands thereunto belonging, late the property of the people professing the religion of the church of England.—March, 1779, c. 9, § 15.

10. The possession and free use of all glebe-lands shall belong to the minister of each parish, from the time of his having agreed with the select vestry for and during the time he shall officiate therein.—ibid, § 17.

---

CHURCH OF ENGLAND.

1. THE book of common prayer, and the administration of the Sacraments, &c. according to the uses of the church of England, &c. shall be solemnly read by every minister or reader in every church settled and established within this province. And all congregations and places for public worship, according to the usage of the church of England, for the maintenance of whose ministers, any certain income is or shall be established by the laws of this province, shall be deemed settled and established churches.—1702, c. 1, § 2.

2. The churches, chapels, glebes, and all other property now belonging to the church of England, ought to remain to the church of England ever.—Decl. 33.

See Vestries, 15, 16, 19.

---

CLERKS, SHERIFFS AND REGISTERS OF WILLS IN PARTICULAR COUNTIES.

---

THE clerk and sheriff in and for the following counties, to wit: Caroline, Queen-Anne's, Montgomery and Cæcil, and the register of wills in the following counties, to wit: Queen-Anne's, Montgomery and Cæcil, shall, after the 1st day of June next, hold, either by themselves or their deputies, their respective offices in the town of Denton for Caroline county, and at the court house, or within one quarter of a mile thereof, in each of the other counties herein named, and they or their deputies respectively, shall, at all times, Sundays excepted, be obliged to attend at their respective offices for the transaction of such business as appertains