

11. There shall be allowed to every commissioner and clerk appointed, or to be appointed in virtue of this act, 15s. current money for every day he shall act as commissioner or clerk by virtue of, and according to the provisions of this act, to be laid by the justices of the several counties of this state, and levied and collected by the sheriff or collector, in the discretion of the justices, in the same manner, and at the same time that other county charges are laid, levied, and collected, with the usual commission for collecting the same.—ibid. § 19.

12. Commissioners to meet on the 20th May next, and to sit 20 days thereafter, if necessary, to hear and determine the complaints, &c. of persons aggrieved, &c. on forfeiture of 20l. current money.—ibid. § 21.

13. The commissioners of the tax are empowered and required from time to time, as often as occasion may require, in order to alter and correct the account of any person who may have parted from the possession of any property, and the sum which shall be taken off, shall be charged to the person who may have purchased, or otherwise acquired the possession of the property; and if the purchaser, &c. shall live in a different county, the said commissioners shall make out a certificate of such change of property, and direct it to the commissioners of the tax for the county where such person shall reside, and the same shall deliver to the sheriff of the county, endorsed, to be forwarded in the manner and under the penalty herein before mentioned, and the rate shall be charged to such person acquiring possession as aforesaid, and be paid by him; but no person shall have any allowance or deduction on account of property aliened or transferred as aforesaid, unless such alienation, transfer, or mutation of possession, shall take place on or before the first day of April in any year, and unless notice thereof shall be given to the commissioners of the county in which such property shall have been last charged; and no person shall be entitled to any such deduction on account of any such change of property which shall take place in the year 1798, unless by judgment or decree executed before the 1st day of April next.—ibid. § 23.

14. The commissioners of the tax shall have full power to call the several assessors before them at the time limited for appeal, or at such other times as they, in their discretion, shall think reasonable, for the purpose of correcting their valuation of property; and the said commissioners shall have full authority, and they are hereby directed carefully to examine the several certificates of valuation in their respective counties, and to correct the same, although no complaint or appeal be made to them, so as to make the same as nearly equal as possible.—ibid. § 24.

15. The commissioners of the several counties shall direct their clerk to enter into a book to be provided for that purpose, an accurate and fair account of all the real and personal property within their county, and the valuation thereof as returned by the assessors, or as corrected by them,
