

yearly, during the continuance of this act, make out and transcribe two fair copies of the levy list allowed by the justices of the respective levy courts against the said counties, containing the several charges and sums levied and assessed on their respective counties, one copy whereof shall be transmitted to the clerk of the senate, and the other copy thereof to the clerk of the house of delegates, for the information of the general assembly—ibid. § 23.

36. The taxes to be paid by the directions of the act to which this is a supplement, shall be paid to the clerks of the respective county courts, at the time of issuing the said process or commissions, or of entering the said appeals, or producing the said writs of error, habeas corpus or certiorari, by the persons applying for the same respectively, and shall be allowed and taxed in the costs of suits; and the clerk of every county shall, every six months, settle his accounts, on oath or affirmation, with the treasurer of his respective shore, and shall pay the sum adjusted to the said treasurer; and every county clerk may retain at the rate of 3 per cent. for his trouble in receiving and paying the said fees according to this act; and it shall be the duty of the said respective clerks, at or before the close of each respective term, and before the returns required by the said original act, shall be made to the said respective treasurers, to present a true, plain and correct list of the several taxes imposed upon the said process and law proceedings, and receivable by them, to the justices of their respective courts, for their examination and approbation; and if upon the examination of such list, and the correction thereof, if necessary, the same shall be approved, the same shall be subscribed by them, or by the chief justice alone, or by the associate justices, and the gross amount of taxes therein contained, shall be certified immediately thereafter by the said chief justice, or by the associate justices, to the treasurer of their respective shore; and every list so subscribed shall be returned, and the amount of taxes therein contained shall be paid, within the space of 15 days after the subscription thereof as aforesaid by the said clerks, to the respective treasurers; and if any of the said clerks shall refuse or neglect to present a true, plain and correct list of the said taxes in manner aforesaid, or to return the same as herein before directed, to the said respective treasurers, every such clerk shall forfeit and pay the sum of 100 dollars for every offence—1797, c. 69, § 3.

37. After the first day of May next, it shall not be lawful for the clerk of any county within this state, to issue any licence of marriage to any person or persons whatsoever, except in the manner hereinafter directed by this act, under the penalty of 50 dollars for every offence—1797, c. 3, § 1.

38. The clerks of the several counties shall, on or before the 1st day of May next, and on or before the same day in every year thereafter, make application to the treasurer of their respective shore for a sufficient number of blank marriage licences, according to the quantity of licences which may
