

dollar; on every commission to mark and bound lands, one dollar—ibid. § 28.

57. The act of 1790, c. 33, except the 4th § thereof, and the supplements thereto, are repealed—ibid. § 34.

58. The county court of Caroline county shall hereafter commence and be held on the first Monday in March in each year, instead of the 2d Monday of that month, and the county court of Dorchester county, on the 3d Monday of March, instead of the 4th Monday in that month, as now established—1797, c. 19, § 1.

59. Upon the death, resignation, removal out of the district, or other disqualification, of any chief justice now in commission, or who may hereafter be commissioned in virtue of this act, the governor and council shall and they are hereby authorized and directed to appoint and commission, for such district in which the vacancy may happen, one person of integrity, experience and sound legal knowledge, who, after his appointment, shall reside in the district for which he is appointed, (and who shall be styled in the commission chief justice of the county courts in such district;) and upon the death, &c. of any associate justice commissioned in virtue of the act to which this is a supplement, or who may hereafter be commissioned in virtue of this act, the governor and council shall appoint and commission, in such county in which the vacancy may happen, two persons of integrity, experience and knowledge, residents of the county, for which they are appointed, (who shall be styled in the commission, associate justices of the county court of the county for which they shall be appointed;) and the said chief justice and associate justices shall hold their commission during good behaviour, and may be removed for misbehaviour, in the same manner as the chancellor and the judges may be removed agreeably to the constitution of this state—ibid. c. 69, § 1.

60. Every chief justice appointed and commissioned in virtue of the act of 1796, c. 43, or who may hereafter be appointed in virtue of this act, shall receive, as a compensation for his services, as follows, viz. For the first district, at the rate of 1300 dollars per annum; for the second district, at the rate of 1300 dollars per annum; for the third district, at the rate of 1400 dollars per annum; for the fourth district, at the rate of 1300 dollars per annum; for the fifth district, at the rate of 1300 dollars per annum; and the treasurer of the Western Shore shall, and he is hereby authorized and directed to pay quarterly, out of any unappropriated money which may be in the treasury, to each of the chief justices, or to his order, the salary which by law he is entitled to receive—ibid. § 2.

61. The sheriffs shall return to their respective county courts a pannel of 48 jurors, qualified, out of which the said respective courts shall direct the clerk to draw, by ballot, 23 persons, who shall be impannelled and