

survive his time of conviction, he shall be sold, and the money applied as herein before provided.—ibid. § 35.

28. After the 1st day of March next, the trial and cognizance of all criminal offences, and other matters, arising within the city of Baltimore, which are at this time cognizable by the court of oyer and terminer and goal delivery of Baltimore county, shall be enquired into, heard, tried and determined, within the city of Baltimore, as follows; that is to say, the governor and council shall nominate, appoint, and commission two persons of integrity and sound judgment, residing within the city or precincts of Baltimore, as associate justices of the Baltimore city court, to act in conjunction with the chief justice of the 3d district, to transact the business of said court, which shall hereafter be styled, in all legal proceedings, Baltimore city court; and the said justices, or any two of them, shall meet on the 2d Monday in the months of January, March, and August, and on the 3d Monday in November, in every year, for the trial of all felonies, crimes, offences and misdemeanors committed, or that may hereafter be committed, in Baltimore city or precincts, and not particularly by law directed to be tried in the general court.—1797, c. 121, § 2.

29. The sheriff of Baltimore county shall summon 48 good and lawful men of the city or precincts of Baltimore, 6 days before the days herein before appointed for the holding said court, as grand and petit jurors, for the presentment and trial of criminal cases only, and shall return a pannel of them accordingly; and every person who shall be summoned, and shall neglect or refuse to appear at the day, and make default, shall be fined by the said justices, not exceeding 10l. current money, to be applied to the use of Baltimore county, and every grand and petit juror shall have an allowance of one dollar and thirty-three cents for every day's attendance, to be assessed and collected with the county assessment.—ibid. § 3.

30. All and singular the clauses, sections, and provisions, contained in the act passed at November session, 1793. entitled; An act for the more effectual punishment of criminals, except so much thereof as relates to, and provides for the appointment of, and compensation to the chief justice and his associates, the summoning a grand and petit jury, and such parts thereof as are repealed by the operation of an act of assembly, passed 1796, entitled, An act to erect Baltimore town, in Baltimore county, into a city, and to incorporate the inhabitants thereof, be, and are hereby continued until the 30th day of January, 1800: and all and singular the jurisdiction powers, and authorities vested in the court of oyer and terminer and goal delivery for Baltimore county by said act, shall be, and are hereby vested in, and may be rightfully exercised by Baltimore city court, or the justices thereof, until the 30th day of January, 1800, at their sittings for criminal business as herein before mentioned, and not otherwise,