

34. Baltimore city court may order any criminal convicted and adjudged to work on the public highways, under the said act for the more effectual punishment of criminals, to be delivered to the person or persons appointed to take care of the criminals by Baltimore county court, and the said person or persons are hereby directed to receive, work, and treat such criminal, in the same manner as criminals convicted in Baltimore county court.—ibid. § 8.

35. All commitments and recognizances taken for felonies and other crimes and misdemeanors, committed in Baltimore county, shall be respectively returned to the court which, agreeably to this law, shall have jurisdiction over the place where the said crime was committed, and any justice taking such recognizance, shall lodge the same with the clerk of said court on the day next before the day appointed for the holding said court, to which it shall be returned, and the offender and witnesses bound in such recognizance shall be obliged to appear by virtue and according to the condition thereof.—ibid. § 9.

36. All criminal actions depending in Baltimore court at January term, 1798, shall be transferred and entered on the Baltimore county and Baltimore city court dockets, according to their respective jurisdictions, to be made out and transmitted to the said courts, at their first meeting respectively hereafter, and the said actions shall be tried therein as effectual, and judgment pronounced and executed, as if the said actions had been tried in Baltimore county criminal court.—ibid. § 10.

37. Baltimore county court shall sit in the city of Baltimore on the 1st Monday in April and September in each year, for the transaction of civil and criminal business, and with the same powers with respect to the cognizance of criminal offences committed within the county, and without the limits of the said city and precincts, as are at this time exercised under any existing law by the court of oyer and terminer and goal delivery for Baltimore county, or by any of the county courts of this state.
ibid. § 11.

38. All expences incurred in the execution of this act shall be a common charge on the city and county of Baltimore, and levied as heretofore by the justices of the levy court of said county.—ibid. § 12.

39. In all cases where the courts are by this act directed to be held in different months from those mentioned in divers acts of assembly, or any of them, it shall be lawful for the justices of the county and city of Baltimore to do and perform all such matters and things at such times in each year as they shall think convenient, either at the courts in course, or an adjourned court, or any other time, as the said justices, or a majority of them, shall elect.—ibid. § 13.
