

act relative to the election of a president and vice-president of the United States, and declaring the officer who shall act as president in case of vacancies in the offices both of president and vice-president, shall be repealed, and in all other respects the election of the said electors shall be made agreeably to the provisions of the several acts of assembly now in force for the regulation of the same.—ibid. § 2.

20. For the purpose of appointing electors hereafter on the part of this state for choosing a president and vice-president of the United States, this state shall be divided into ten districts, as follows, to wit:—Saint Mary's, Charles and Calvert counties, shall compose the first district; Prince-George's and Montgomery the second; Frederick the third; Washington and Allegany the fourth; Anne-Arundel, including the city of Annapolis, and Baltimore town, the fifth; Baltimore county, (excluding the town,) and Harford county, the sixth; Cæcil and Kent the seventh; Queen-Anne's and Talbot the eighth; Caroline and Dorchester the ninth; and Somerset and Worcester the tenth district.—1795, c. 73, § 1.

21. Each of the said districts shall elect and appoint one person, being a resident of the said district, as an elector for choosing a president and vice-president of the United States, and the elections of electors for the purpose of choosing the president and vice-president of the United States, shall be made by the citizens of this state qualified to vote for members of the house of delegates of this state, at such places in the several counties in this state, and in the town of Baltimore and city of Annapolis, as are appointed for holding the election for delegates in the legislature of this state.—ibid. § 3.

22. Such election of electors aforesaid shall be made on the 2d. Wednesday in Nov. next, and on the 2d. Wednesday in Nov. in every fourth year thereafter, and at such other times as the governor and council shall direct, in case the office of president and vice president shall become vacant—ibid. § 3.

23. The persons authorised and appointed judges by the laws and constitution of this state for holding the elections for representatives in the legislature thereof, shall be the judges of the respective elections to be made in virtue of this act.—ibid. § 4.

24. The said elections shall be made viva voce, and after the polls in the several counties, and the city of Annapolis and Baltimore town, shall be closed, and the votes cast up by the judges, the names of the several persons voted for in the several counties, and city of Annapolis and Baltimore town, shall be written on parchment, or paper, and the number of votes for each candidate in the several counties, the city of Annapolis and Baltimore town, enumerated and set down, which number shall be written in words at length, and not in figures, and the polls,
