

appoint warehouses, or to nominate and recommend inspectors, in pursuance of this act, shall forfeit 20*l.* current money for every such neglect.

—ibid. § 7.

6. The justices of the several counties, or any three or more of them, shall at the time of making their county assessment, ascertain salaries, so that the same shall not exceed 80*l.* current money for each inspector within their county; and if the reward allowed by this act for inspection shall not be sufficient to satisfy the said salaries and warehouse rent, and other charges of the inspection houses within their counties, the said justices shall assess in their county assessment a sum of money sufficient to discharge the same.—ibid. § 16.

7. There shall be provided by the justices of each county, at the county charge, and kept at every one of the said warehouses a good and sufficient beam, prizes, cranes, blocks, tackles, weights and scales to weigh 1500 gross pounds at the least, and a set of small weights, such as are provided for the standard weights of each county, and proper branding and marking irons, and other necessaries; and the inspector or inspectors are required constantly to keep the same in good repair, under a penalty not exceeding 50*l.* current money; and it is the duty of the standard keeper of each county, when required, to attend the said justices with the standard weights of the county, and to assist them in adjusting the beams and scales, and trying the weights; and the said standard keepers shall be allowed by the justices of their respective counties, a reasonable compensation for their trouble.—ibid. § 24.

8. The justices aforesaid shall when necessary agree for and purchase a quantity of land not exceeding 2 acres, the most convenient for the erection of warehouses; and in case the owner shall refuse to make sale of so much of the said land as the said justices shall think necessary, at a reasonable price, or be under any disability, then they shall issue their warrant to the sheriff, commanding him to summon and return a jury, not less than 12, not interested in, or related to, the owner of such land, to be and appear before the said justices on the premises, upon a certain day; which jury, upon their oath, shall inquire who is or are the owner or owners of the said land, what is the value thereof, and what damages such owner or owners will sustain; and the sum of money the said jury shall adjudge, shall be assessed by the justices of such county at their next county assessment, and shall be collected by the sheriff or collector, who shall pay the same to the owner or owners of the land; and the said justices shall thereupon, cause such land to be surveyed and laid out by the surveyor of the county, with sufficient boundaries, and a certificate thereof to be returned and recorded in the county records; and the justices of the said county, and their successors, shall be vested with an estate in fee simple in the said land, for the use of such county for ever; and the said justices or any two of them shall treat and agree with workmen to build and finish
