

22. If there be no relations, administration shall be granted to the largest creditor applying for the same.

23. If there shall be neither husband nor wife, nor child, nor grand child, nor father, nor brother, nor sister, nor mother, or if these be incapable or decline, or refuse to appear on proper summons or notice, or if other relations and creditors shall neglect to apply, administration may be granted, at discretion of the court.

24. If however letters of administration are to be granted, with a copy of the will annexed, and there be a residuary legatee or legatees in such will, he, she, or they, shall be preferred to all, except a widow, and it shall be incumbent on the court to proceed, in the manner herein before directed, with respect to executors within the state, before administration shall be granted to any other person; and a male residuary legatee shall be preferred to a female.

25. Administration may be granted to two or more persons, with the consent of the person first entitled, provided that administration in all cases, shall extend to all the personal property of the deceased within the state, in order that the affairs of deceased persons be as little complicated as may be, and that persons interested therein may the more easily and readily obtain justice.

CHAP. 6. Rules concerning Inventories.

1. In every case wherein letters testamentary, or of administration, or of collection, are granted, in order that all persons interested in the personal estate may have an opportunity of knowing, as nearly as may be, the amount of the same, an inventory, in case the estate lies in one county, or can conveniently be collected together, or inventories, in case the property lies in more than one county, or cannot conveniently be collected together, shall be returned to the office granting the administration.

2. And on granting any letters testamentary, or of administration, or of collection, a warrant or warrants shall issue, under the seal of office, authorising two persons of discretion, not related to the deceased, nor interested in the administration, to appraise the goods, chattels, and personal estate of the deceased, known to them, or to be shewn by the executor, administrator or collector. Form of the warrant. "The State of Maryland,
" To _____ and _____, greeting. This is to authorise you jointly to appraise
" the goods, chattels, and personal estate, of _____, late of _____, deceased, so
" far as they shall come to your sight and knowledge, each of you having first taken
" the oath or affirmation, hereto annexed, a certificate whereof you are to return, annexed
" to an inventory of the said goods, chattels and personal estate, by you appraised in
" dollars and cents; and in the said inventory you are to set down, in a column or
" columns opposite to each article, the value thereof. Witness C. D. chief justice
" (or judge) of the orphans court in _____ county. Test. E. F. Register, &c.

3. And on the death, refusal or neglect to act, of any appraiser, another warrant may forthwith issue in its stead.

4. The appraisers, before they proceed to act, shall take the following oath, or affirmation, as the case may be, annexed to, or endorsed on, the warrant, before any person authorised to administer an oath: "I, A. B. do swear, or solemnly, sincerely and truly affirm, that I will well and truly, without partiality or prejudice, value and appraise the goods, chattels and personal estate, of _____, deceased, so far as the same shall come to my sight and knowledge, and will, in all respects, perform my duty as appraiser, to the best of my skill and judgement; So help me God."

5. The appraisers shall proceed as conveniently as may be to the discharge of their duty, and shall set down each article, with the value thereof, in dollars and cents; all the valuations on one side of the paper shall be set down in one column, distinctly, in figures, opposite to their respective articles; the contents of each column shall be call up and set down, and likewise the contents of the whole shall be cast up, and set down under the last column.

6. When the inventory shall be finished, the appraisers shall certify the same, under their hands and seals, and a certificate of their having taken the oath or affirmation as aforesaid, shall be thereto annexed; and every inventory shall be returned to the proper office
