

JOHN SEYMOUR, ESQUIRE, GOVERNOR.

MARCH 1707.

C H A P. IV.

An ACT against forging and counterfeiting of foreign coins, gold or silver. Lib. LL. No. 3. fol. 281.

Passed 15th of April, 1707.

Preamble.

FORASMUCH as divers evil disposed persons have of late forged and counterfeited several foreign coins, commonly received amongst her majesty's subjects of this province for current payment, to the great damage of her majesty's said subjects, being thereunto encouraged for that there has not heretofore been any condign punishment by law provided for such offenders; wherefore, and in order to deter such like offenders for the future from such evil and pernicious practices,

IT IS ENACTED, by the Queen's most excellent majesty, by and with the advice and consent of her majesty's Governor, Council, and Assembly, and the authority of the same, That if any person or persons, after the publication of this act, falsely forge, counterfeit, or (a) clip, any such kind of coin of gold or silver, as is not the proper coin of the kingdom of England, or shall aid, assist or abett any offender or offenders doing the same, either by concealing them, or by any other ways or means countenance such offenders in their said offences, every such offender, his aiders, abettors and countenancers therein, for the first offence shall be whipped, pillored, and cropped in both ears, and for the second offence shall be branded on the cheek, and banished, upon due conviction in any of her majesty's courts of record within this province.

Persons counterfeiting to be whipped, &c.

(a) Such part of this act as relates to clipping, is repealed by 1719, ch. 2.

C H A P. V.
