Preamble.

Justices to af-
certain bounds,
&c.

FORASMUCH as it hath been represented to this general assembly, that for want of due care in the first division of the several parishes within this province, the bounds of many of the said parishes remain very uncertain and disputable, which heretofore hath been, and hereafter may be, the occasion of many debates and controversies, as well between the several incumbents, as the vestries of such parishes; for prevention whereof, for the future,

II. BE IT ENACTED, by the Queen's most excellent majesty, by and with the advice and consent of her majesty's President, Council and Assembly of this province, and the authority of the same, That from and after the end of this present session of assembly, it shall and may be lawful for the justices of the several county courts within this province, or the major part of them, where the bounds of any parish or parishes within their respective counties are uncertain, or ambiguously expressed, to ascertain and regulate them for the future, and after having so done, to cause their proceedings therein to be entered in the records of their county courts, there-to remain for the satisfaction of those that at any time hereafter shall have occasion to have recourse thereunto.

And determine those disputed.

III. AND, whereas some parishes are so divided as that they are partly contained in two counties, BE IT THEREFORE ENACTED, by the authority aforesaid, by and with the advice and consent aforesaid, That in every such case, the justices of that county court wherein the disputable bounds of such parish is contained, or the major part of them, shall determine the same, and cause such their determination to be entered in the records of their county court as aforesaid.

The 4th section is omitted, as relating to the forty pounds of tobacco per poll, which was payable to the ministers.
