

JOHN HART, ESQUIRE, GOVERNOR.

APRIL. 1715.

C H A P.
XV.

able person or persons in his or their family, for every such offence, or not giving a true list or account of them as aforesaid to the constable by the time required, and for every taxable person by them concealed, shall forfeit and pay the sum of five hundred pounds of tobacco for every such offence, (d) one half thereof to his majesty, his heirs and successors, for the support of government, the other half to the informer, or him or them that will sue for the same, to be recovered in any county court within this province, by action of debt, bill, plaint or information, wherein no escoin; protection or wager of law to be allowed.

(d) By 1719, ch. 12, section 2, masters, &c. of families concealing any taxable, or not giving true account thereof, pursuant to this clause, shall, for every taxable so concealed, or not given in, forfeit 500lb. tobacco, one half to the county school, the other to the informer.

V: AND, for the better ascertaining what persons are, and shall be deemed taxables, and what not, BE IT ENACTED, That all male persons, residents in this province, and all (e) female slaves there-in, of the age of sixteen years, or above, shall be accounted taxables, except clergymen of the church of England having benefices within this province, and likewise such poor people as receive alms from the county, and also all such slaves as shall be adjudged by the county court to be past labour, who are hereby exempted; any law, usage or custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

What persons are deemed taxables, &c.

(e) All female mulattoes born of white women, and all free negro women, shall be taxables, by 1723, ch. 4.

VI. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, by the authority aforesaid, by and with the advice and consent aforesaid, That all constables within this province shall obey, and are hereby obliged to execute, all warrants and precepts to them directed from any justice or justices within this province, touching or concerning any matter, debt or demand between party and party; and such constable shall and may have, take, exact and receive from the party complaining, a fee of two shillings and six-pence current money, or thirty pounds of tobacco, for serving all the precepts relating to any one action, matter or demand, and no more.

Constables to obey warrants
&c.

VII. PROVIDED, That where several constables are to be employed in executing precepts relating to one and the same matter or demand, the justice before whom such matter or demand is determined, shall and may direct what fee, not exceeding two shillings and six-pence, or thirty pounds of tobacco, each constable shall have; which fee or fees are to be levied by way of execution on the party complaining, and to be allowed the party recovering in his costs.
