This act is inserted at large, but several of the provisions which it contains have been altered by the act to establish orphans courts, the act of 1785, ch. 80, and 1798, ch. 101.

C H A P. XXV.

An ACT to prevent rigorous prosecutions on sheriffs, testamentary, administration and deputy-commissaries bonds. Lib. L. No. 5.

Passed 8th of August, 1729.

fol. 315.

WHEREAS it is represented to this general assembly, that sheriffs and testamentary bonds are frequently put in suit in the provincial court, and that the persons causing such bonds to be sued upon their obtaining judgments, frequently issue executions for the whole penalties contained in such bonds, with direction to the sheriff, or coroners, to release the party executed, upon payment of what the creditor alleges his demand to be: And whereas an act of parliament, made the eighth and ninth years of king William the third, entitled, An act for the better preventing frivolous and vexatious suits, does not fully provide for the evils complained of.

II. BE IT ENACTED, by the right honourable the Lord Proprietary, by and with the advice and consent of His lordship's Governor, and the Upper and Lower Houses of Assembly, and the authority of the same, That it shall not be lawful for any person or persons causing such bonds to be sued to proceed to judgment, until the creditor or creditors clearly make appear to the court what his, her or their demand is or are, which court may, and they are hereby empowered, upon the defendant's having notice given him, her or them, or notice left at the place of his, her or their last place of abode, twenty days before the court in which the plaintiff applies for such debt or demand to be assessed, as also a copy of the nature of his, her or their demand, attested by the clerk, to assess such damages, or appoint auditors to adjust such demands, whereupon it shall be lawful for such court to give judgment to such creditor or creditors on such bond in usual manner, but that execution only issue for such sum as shall be made appear to be due, unless the party at whose request such bond be sued, or the defendant or defendants applies to the court, praying a writ of inquiry, which, if either party prays, shall be issued by the court, to be proceeded in according to the directions of the aforesaid act of parliament, and that execution issue for no more than found by the jury, with costs, and interest till payment made or tendered; and that where any such bond is proceeded on to judgment, no other creditor shall come in for any part of the penalty, under pretence of any thing being due to such creditor, without sending a scire facias to be served, which scire facias shall be issued within eighteen months after such recovery, and not after, on the defendant or defendants, in which scire facias shall be contained the nature of such creditor or creditors demand, and the sum due.

III. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, by the authority aforesaid, by and with the advice and consent aforesaid. That all actions hereafter to be brought on sheriffs bonds hereafter to be passed, shall be sued or brought within the space of five years after the passing such bond, and not afterwards; and all actions hereafter to be brought on sheriffs bonds, heretofore entered into, shall be brought and commenced within three years after the end of this present session of assembly, and not afterwards.

IV. PROVIDED, That this act, nor any thing herein contained, shall bar his sacred majesty, his heirs and successors, nor the right honourable the lord proprietary, his heirs and successors, from suing in their own right, at any time; and, if any person entitled to sue such bond, shall be at the time of any cause of action on such bond under the age of one and twenty years, feme-covert, non compot mentis, imprisoned, or beyond the sea, that then such person or persons shall be at liberty to bring his, her or their action within the space of five years after such impediment removed, as other person having no such impediment might or should have done.
