

S A M U E L O G L E, ESQUIRE, GOVERNOR. MARCH. 1734.

ought to have prevented the said mischievous custom, have not been subject to any penalty for neglecting their duty therein; wherefore it is prayed that it may be enacted,

II. AND BE IT ENACTED, by the right honourable the Lord Proprietary, by and with the advice and consent of his lordship's Governor, and the Upper and Lower Houses of Assembly, and the authority of the same, That from and after the publication of this act, if any ballast shall be taken, unladen, or cast out of any ship or other vessel, on any pretence whatsoever, within the limits hereafter mentioned, but in the day-time; that is to say, between the rising and setting of the sun; or if any ballast shall be unladen, or taken out of any ship or vessel, in the bay of Chesapeake, above Cedar point, below the mouth of Patuxent river, in any river, creek or harbour, within this province; and east into the bay above Cedar point aforesaid, or into any river, creek or harbour, below high-water mark, that the master, or other person having the charge or command of such ship or vessel, shall forfeit and pay the sum of fifty pounds current money, one half thereof to the lord proprietary, for the support of government, the other half to him or them who will sue for the same, to be recovered in any court of record within this province by action of debt, bill, plaint or information, wherein no essein, protection, or wager of law to be allowed.

By 1774, ch. 18, in all actions, &c. under this act, special bail may be awarded, on affidavit being made, and full costs to the plaintiff or informer on judgment.

III. AND BE IT ENACTED, by the authority aforesaid, That no person whatsoever shall presume to build any wear or hedge crois any river, creek or branch, below any public landing place, so as to prejudice or dam up the channel, or to obstruct the passage of boats, on pain of forfeiting ten pounds current money of Maryland, to be recovered in the proper county court by action of debt, bill, plaint or information, wherein no essein, protection, or wager of law shall be allowed.

IV. AND, to the end, that all masters, and other persons having the command or charge of ships or vessels, may have due notice of this act, and not pretend ignorance, BE IT ENACTED, by the authority aforesaid, That every naval officer within this province, shall set up, and keep fixed in some public place in his office, a copy of this act, (for which copy the said naval officers shall be allowed ten shillings in the public levy,) on pain of forfeiting ten pounds current money of Maryland, to be recovered as aforesaid, to the uses aforesaid.

This section is rendered inoperative by the naval officers being under the direction of the general government.
