An ACT for the sale of the glebe-land in Shrewsbury parish, in Kent county. Lib. TBH. No. A. fol. 299.

WHEREAS the vestrymen and other the parishioners of Shrewsbury parish, in Kent county, have, by their humble petition to this general assembly, set forth, that in the life-time of the late reverend Mr. Forrester there was a new parish laid out in the said county, which took in the glebe-land belonging to the said parish, by which means the glebe now lies a considerable distance without the said parish, and they are of opinion it will be of much advantage to the parish to dispose of the said land, and to apply the money arising therefrom towards purchasing land more conveniently situated, or in case such cannot be immediately purchased, to put the money to interest, for the use of the said parish, until the present or some succeeding vestry have an opportunity of purchasing of land within the said parish conveniently situated for a glebe; the petitioners therefore pray, that a law may pass to enable them, or a succeeding vestry, to sell and convey the land now belonging to the said parish as a glebe, for the reasons aforesaid; which being thought reasonable, Preamble.

II. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the vestrymen and churchwardens of the parish of Shrewsbury, in Kent county, for the time being, or the major part of them, be and are hereby authorized and empowered to sell and convey, in fee-simple, to the person that shall bid the best price, all the land belonging to the aforesaid parish as a glebe, at public vendue, after giving six weeks notice of the intended sale in the Maryland Gazette and Baltimore Journal, at the court-house door in Kent county, and at five of the most public places in the parish aforesaid, and the money arising from such sale to apply towards the purchasing of another piece of land lying within the said parish, and more conveniently situated; and that such other land, when so purchased, shall be made over to the vestrymen and churchwardens, and their successors aforesaid, in trust and for the use and benefit of the minister or incumbent of said parish for ever; provided, that in case the said vestrymen and churchwardens shall not be able to purchase some other land more convenient, as herein before directed, then the said vestrymen and churchwardens shall and they are hereby empowered and directed to place the money arising from such sale out to interest, upon good and sufficient security, which interest shall be paid yearly to the minister or incumbent of said parish for the time being, and in case of no minister or incumbent, then to the vestrymen or churchwardens thereof, until the purchase aforesaid can be made, which it is nevertheless hereby declared to be the duty of the said vestrymen and churchwardens, or the major part of them, to make, as soon as possible can be done to the advantage and convenience intended.

Glebe to be sold, &c.
