An ACT to relieve certain purchasers of confiscated property. Lib. TBH. No. A. fol. 318. A Private Act.

Preamble.

Where wills may be proved

C H A P. XXX.
An ACT to authorise the probat of wills in the county where the witnesses reside. Lib. TBH. No. A. fol. 319.

WHEREAS it has already, and may hereafter frequently happen, that testators may make their last will in counties remote from the county where their real estate may lie, and it is very inconvenient for the witnesses to such will to prove the same, as now required by law;

Executors to procure a copy
&c.

II. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That any last will and testament made, or hereafter to be made, may be proved in the orphans court of the county, or before the register of such court, where the witnesses, or the greater part of them, may live; and letters testamentary may be granted, and administration of the estate of such testator made and completed in such county; and if any personal property lies in any other county, warrant may issue to inhabitants of such county to appraise the personal property in such county.

III. AND, whereas it may be proper in some cases to prove the will in the county where the witnesses reside, and to obtain letters testamentary in the county where the personal property of the testator lies, BE IT ENACTED, That if the executor shall prove any will agreeable to the liberty given by this act, and desire to obtain letters testamentary in any other county, that in such case he shall procure an attested copy under the seal of the orphans court, of the will and probat, and on producing the same to the orphans court (or register) of any other county, the same shall be recorded there, and he may obtain letters testamentary thereon, in the same manner as if the original will had been proved in such county.

Such parts of this act as are inconsistent with or repugnant to the act of 1798, ch. 101, are by that act repealed.
