An ACT for the regulation of the markets in Baltimore-town. Lib. TBH. No. A. fol. 655.

Passed 6th of
March, 1785.

A Supplement May, 1788, ch. 17.

WHEREAS the inhabitants of that part of Baltimore-town called Fell's Point, have built a market-house on a piece of ground given them by Edward Fell, deceased, and the said market has been held by common consent on Tuesdays and Fridays in every week, which said market has not been established by law: And whereas they have, by their petition presented to this general assembly, prayed that a law should pass to regulate said market, and to have a clerk of said market appointed, and the days aforesaid established by law; and the prayer of the said petition appearing reasonable,

Preamble.

II. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the said market-house shall be and is hereby established by law, by the name of Fell's Market; and that all and singular the regulations and provisions respecting the market, in an act of assembly, entitled, An act for establishing new markets, and building market-houses in Baltimore-town, and for the regulation of said markets, passed at a session of assembly in the year seventeen hundred and eighty-four, * shall be in force, and executed and extend, and be construed to extend, to the said market described by this act, in as full
