

II. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the said rector, governors, trustees and visitors, of King William's school, shall meet at their usual place of meeting on the twenty-second day of February, in the present year seventeen hundred and eighty-six, or on any other day thereafter, as shall be by them appointed, and appoint a committee of their own body, consisting of five persons, to meet the visitors and governors of Saint-John's college, or a committee thereof, to confer and treat with them on the terms and conditions upon which the funds and property belonging to the said school shall be conveyed to the said visitors and governors of Saint-John's college; and if the said committees shall agree on the terms and conditions, the same shall be reported at a meeting of the rector, governors, trustees and visitors of King William's school, at which meeting every member on that day in the city of Annapolis shall have notice to attend, and if the said terms and conditions shall be approved by eleven members, they, or any eleven of the said body corporate, may, by a deed executed and acknowledged before the general court, or any judge thereof, or the county court of Anne-Arundel, or any two justices thereof, and recorded within six months of the date among the records of the general court of the western shore, or the records of Anne-Arundel county, grant and convey unto the visitors and governors of Saint-John's college, and their successors, all the lands, chattels, and choses in action, and property belonging to the said school, upon the terms and condition to be agreed on and ratified as aforesaid, and such deed shall be sufficient to pass the said property; and the said visitors and governors of Saint-John's college shall thereupon have full power to sue by the name of their own body corporate, and to recover all things to which the said school now has a right, and which shall have conveyed as aforesaid; the said visitors and governors to be named as assignees whenever they shall prosecute an action upon a bond.

III. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That in case the terms or conditions upon which the property aforesaid may be agreed to be transferred be broken and not complied with by the said visitors and governors of Saint-John's college, then the said property shall revert in the rector, governors, trustees and visitors of King William's school, in the same manner and to the same uses, intents and purposes, as they now hold the same; and if, at the time of breaking the said terms and conditions, it shall happen that there shall not be a sufficient number of the said rector, governor, trustees and visitors, living, or if those living shall decline to act, so that there shall not be a sufficient number to hold and apply the said property, and to exercise the powers they now have, the governor and council for the time being shall appoint so many proper persons to be rector, governors, trustees and visitors, as shall make up the number at this time by law empowered to act; and if at the time of such breach of terms and conditions, or after such breach and before any act shall be done, it shall happen that none of the present rector, governors, trustees and visitors shall be living, or if all shall decline to act, then the said property shall be vested in the governor and council for the time being, and their successors, who shall, without delay, appoint a sufficient number of proper persons to be rector, governors, trustees and visitors, of the said school, who shall receive and take the said property, to be held, managed and used, by them and their successors, for the uses, intents and purposes, for which it was originally granted; and the persons so to be appointed shall perform the same duties, and have the same powers, as the present body corporate at this time perform and enjoy; and those persons who shall, upon any breach of terms or conditions as aforesaid, be under this act entitled to hold the said property, shall have power, by the name of The Rector and Visitors of Annapolis School, to sue in any court of law or equity, as the case may be, and therein to recover the said property from the visitors and governors of Saint-John's college, or from any other person or persons to whom it shall have been illegally conveyed, or to recover the full value of the said property from the said visitors and governors of Saint-John's college, in case they shall have conveyed the said property, having authority as visitors and governors to convey the same; and the body corporate for managing the interests of the said school in Annapolis shall hereafter be known and distinguished, on all occasions on which they shall be mentioned, by no other name than of The Rector and Visitors of Annapolis School, and they shall always from the passage of this act, plead and be impleaded, grant and convey, receive and take, by that and by no other name.
