paid into the treasuries agreeably to this act, and if it appears to either of them that any collector of their respective shores hath received money or certificates which shall not be paid into the treasury by the said tenth day of February next, then the bond of such collector shall be ordered to be put in suit.

Certificates to be given in change, &c.

V. AND BE IT ENACTED, That in the collection of the tax aforesaid, it is hereby declared to be the duty of the respective collectors to give certificates in change, if they have them, to those who may offer such certificates as are receivable in payment of the said tax for larger sums than the tax due by the persons offering such certificates.

Money not to be given, &c.

VI. AND BE IT ENACTED, That money shall not be given by any collector in change for any certificate above five per cent. on the tax payable in certificates by the person who may offer such certificates.

Commissioners to take bonds,
&c.

VII. AND, whereas in some counties the collectors may not have given bond with security, as required by the act to raise the supplies for the year seventeen hundred and eighty-six, BE IT ENACTED, That the commissioners of the tax in the respective counties of this state, or a major part of them, be and are hereby authorized and directed, in cases where bonds have not heretofore been given, to take bonds from the said collectors in their respective counties, in manner and form as by the said act is directed, only extending the time of collection in the condition of the said bonds to the first day of June next.

C H A P. XXII.

Passed 26th of Jan. 1787.

An ACT to vest certain powers in the governor and council. Lib. TBH. No. B. fol. 103.

Preamble.

WHEREAS the military, and many of the civil officers of this state, hold their commissions during the will and pleasure of the governor and council, and may be suspended or removed by the governor and council on just grounds of complaint: And whereas by an act (a) enabling the governor and council to determine the validity of elections for sheriffs, the governor and council are made judges in certain instances of the validity of said elections, but neither the constitution in the first case, nor the said act in the other case, invest the said governor and council with power to summon witnesses, and enforce their attendance, without which the subject of complaint in either case cannot be fully and properly investigated;

(a) February, 1777, ch. 29.

Governor, &c.
may issue summonses, &c.

II. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the governor and council, or any three or more of them, be and are hereby empowered to issue summonses on complaints aforesaid for witnesses, and to enforce the same, or to direct depositions to be taken in like manner as the general court is authorized and empowered; and in all cases of complaint, the party complained against shall have a copy of the complaint, and notice of the time when the governor and council shall inquire into and examine the same, and if the party on receiving such copy and notice will not attend, the governor and council may, in his absence, proceed to the inquiry and examination.

And order costs
to be paid, &c.

III. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the costs and expences on controverted elections be paid by such party as the governor and council, or any three or more of them, shall adjudge to pay on consideration of the circumstances of the case, and the costs and expences on complaints against the officers of government shall be paid by the party complaining or complained against, or by the public, as the governor and council, or any three or more of them, shall adjudge; and the governor and council, or any three or more of them, shall have power to compel payment in the like manner as the general court are authorized and empowered.
