XXX. AND BE IT ENACTED, That all fines, penalties and forfeitures, imposed by this act, shall be recovered in the manner directed by the act of assembly of February session, seventeen hundred and seventy-seven, * but one half of the said penalties and forfeitures, on recovery thereof, shall be paid to the said commissioners of review for the time being, to be by them applied in the execution of this act.

C H A P. XXIV.

An ACT vesting power in the trustees of the charity school in Saint-Peter's parish, in Talbot county, to convey the lands therein mentioned for the benefit and use of the poor of Talbot county... Lib. TBH. No. B. fol. 235.

WHEREAS Matthew Tilghman and John Gordon, trustees of the charity school in Saint-Peter's parish, in Talbot county, by their memorial to this general assembly, have set forth, that by an instrument of writing, bearing date the thirteenth day of February, seventeen hundred and fifty-three, a certain David Robinson conveyed unto Thomas Bacon, in trust, for the use and benefit of a charity school in Saint-Peter's parish, in Talbot county, all that part of a tract of land called Hull, also all that tract or parcel of land called David's Folly, and also all that tract or parcel of land called Chance, situate in Talbot county, as by reference to the said instrument of writing will more fully appear; and that by the death of the said Thomas Bacon, the trust aforesaid has devolved to the co-heirs of the said Thomas Bacon, the one named Rachel, who has married Risdon Bosman Harwood, the other named Mary, who has married Moses Pasapae; and that by an instrument of writing, the one bearing date the twenty-first day of January, seventeen hundred and eighty-seven, the other the twenty-eighth day of March, seventeen hundred and eighty-seven, Risdon Bosman Harwood and Rachel his wife, and Moses Pasapae and Mary his wife, have conveyed in trust, unto the said memorialists, the land mentioned in the above instrument of writing, and all the right and title in the trust aforesaid, acquired by the said Risdon Bosman Harwood and Rachel his wife, and Moses Pasapae and Mary his wife; and the said memorialists have further set forth, that although the intention of the trust aforesaid to the said Thomas Bacon was for the use and benefit of the charity school aforesaid, that notwithstanding the said intention, the lands aforesaid have not, for a considerable number of years, been applied to the intended purpose, and are now, and have been for some time, in the possession of a certain Sarah Howard, who does not claim any title thereto; the memorialists have therefore humbly prayed they may be empowered to convey the trust aforesaid to the trustees of the poor of Talbot county, and their successors, for the use and benefit of the poor of said county: And whereas it seemeth reasonable to this general assembly to grant the prayer of, the said memorialists;

II. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Matthew Tilghman and John Gordon, trustees as aforesaid of the aforesaid charity school in Saint-Peter's parish, in Talbot county aforesaid, shall be and are hereby authorized and empowered to convey in fee-simple the aforesaid lands unto the said trustees of the poor of Talbot county, and their successors, for the charitable use and benefit of the poor of said county, and that such deed, being executed and acknowledged in the usual form, and recorded amongst the records of Talbot county, shall be good and sufficient to convey the said land to the said trustees, and their successors, for the use aforesaid.

III. PROVIDED ALWAYS, That nothing in this act is meant, or shall be construed, to affect the right of any person whatever, except those mentioned in this act.

IV. BE IT ENACTED, That that part of an act of assembly, passed at November session, seventeen hundred and eighty-five, * entitled, An act for the relief of the poor of Talbot county, empowering the justices of said county to assess and levy on the property of said county the sum of four hundred pounds in the years seventeen hundred and eighty-seven and seventeen hundred and eighty-eight, be and hereby is repealed.

C H A P. XXV.

An ACT declaring the treaty of peace between the United States and his Britannic majesty the supreme law within this state. Lib. TBH. No. B. fol. 237.

BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, and it is hereby declared, That the treaty of peace made between the United States of America and his Britannic majesty, is the supreme law.
