An ACT for the relief of the poor in Montgomery and Harford counties. Lib. TBH. No. B. fol. 322.

Preamble.

A Supplement, (as to Harford county,) 1794, ch. 68.

WHEREAS the necessity, number and continual increase, of the poor within the said counties, is very great and burthensome, which might be greatly lessened by a due regulation and employment of them; therefore,

Alms and work-houses to be erected, &c.

II. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That there shall be alms and work-houses erected and built in Montgomery and Harford counties, at a convenient place therein, at the general charge and expence of the said counties respectively; and that the justices of the said counties respectively for the time being shall and they are hereby authorised and empowered to assess and levy in equal proportion on the property within their respective counties liable to assessment, at their next March courts, the sum of three hundred pounds current money, and the like sum at the time of laying their county rate in each of the years seventeen hundred and eighty-nine, and seventeen hundred and ninety, together with the collector's commission of five per cent. thereon for collecting; which said rate or assessment, so as aforesaid to be laid and levied, shall be collected by the collector of said counties respectively, in the same manner, and at the same time, as the county rate is collected; and the said money, when so as aforesaid collected, shall be paid by the collector to such trustees for the poor, or the major part of them, as are by this act appointed, who are hereby authorised and required to receive and apply the same to the uses and purposes herein after directed.

pointed, &c.

III. AND BE IT ENACTED, That for the time being the several persons hereafter named be and are hereby appointed trustees of the poor within the said counties respectively, and are empowered, with full and sufficient authority, to discharge the several offices, duties and trusts reposed in and required of them by this act; that is to say, Messieurs Richard Wootton, William Oneale, Benjamin Mackel, Charles Perry, Charles Beatty, Henry Brookes and Jeremiah Cribb, for Montgomery county, and Messieurs Joseph Stiles, Daniel Tredway, James Walker, William Smithson, Alexander Rigden, Jesse Jarrard and Jacob Norris, for Harford county; the which persons, or the major part of them, in case of the death or absence of any, are hereby required, with all convenient speed, to meet at such place within their said counties respectively as to them shall seem meet, to qualify themselves
