An ACT for the relief of certain foreigners who have settled within this state, and for other purposes, supplemental to the act for naturalization. Lib. JG. No. 1. fol. 123.

Passed 22d of Dec. 1789.

WHEREAS the act for naturalization, passed at July session, in the year seventeen hundred and seventy-nine, * declares, that every person who shall thereafter come into this state from any nation, kingdom or state, and shall repeat and subscribe a declaration of his belief in the christian religion, and take, repeat and subscribe, the oath or affirmation in the same act prescribed, before the governor and the council, or before the general court, or any one of the judges thereof, or before any county court, shall thereupon and thereafter be deemed, adjudged and taken to be, a natural born subject of this state, and shall be thenceforth entitled to all the immunities, rights and privileges, of a natural born subject of this state, subject nevertheless to the restrictions provided by the said act: And whereas, since the passage of the said act, divers foreigners have come into this state, and have settled and become inhabitants thereof, and have been induced, from the various advantages afforded by our government, climate, soil and commerce, to employ their money in the purchase of property, both real and personal, and to improve the same, thereby acquiring a just and equitable title to such property, but through ignorance of the provisions contained in the before-mentioned act, or apprehending that taking and subscribing the oath of allegiance in the usual manner would entitle them to the advantages of property, the said foreigners have not taken and subscribed the oath prescribed by the act for naturalization under the particular circumstances required by the same, whereby their titles to such real property as they have acquired since their settlement in this state may be drawn in question, to their great prejudice and injury: And whereas the said foreigners have always manifested a firm attachment to our government and laws, and it is conceived, that by securing their interests in our soil, their affections to this country will be more fully confirmed, and that justice and policy require that the hardships and inconveniencies under which they respectively labour should be remedied; therefore,
