

tic, on application of the party at whose suit the said person was imprisoned, and on his producing a certificate from the register in chancery, that such person hath not appeared before the chancellor agreeably to the said order, to remand the said person to the prison from which he was discharged, there to remain until discharged by a due course of law; and provided always, that if any creditor of any petitioning debtor in any of the gaols on the eastern shore shall require of the petitioner, that the judge or justice aforesaid shall nor release any petitioner, until he or they shall give such security as the judge or justice shall require for his appearance before the chancellor within three months from the date of his discharge as aforesaid.

XIII. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the chancellor may, by order, limit and appoint the time for creditors to bring in and declare their claims, and may examine such creditors, and also the debtor, on oath or affirmation, concerning the same; and, on any contested claim, may, if he thinks proper, order the same, or any fact concerning the same, to be tried on an issue framed for that purpose, and may order any part of the petitioning debtor's estate to be set apart and retained for the eventual satisfaction of any contested claim, or to be brought again into distribution; and if any creditor, to whom a real debt is due, shall collude with the debtor to gain an undue preference in the satisfaction of his debt, or for concealment of any part of the debtor's estate or effects, or shall contrive or concert any acknowledgment of the debtor, by parole, or in writing, or any kind of security, to give false colour to his claim for more than is bond fide due, such creditor shall lose his debt truly due, and shall be totally excluded in the distribution.

XIV. AND BE IT ENACTED, That if the said debtors, or any of them, shall be arrested or imprisoned on any process sued out on any judgment or decree obtained against them, or any of them, for any debt, damages or costs, contracted, owing or growing due, before the passing of this act, the court, out of which such process issued, shall and may discharge such debtor on motion; and if the said debtors, or any of them, shall be arrested or imprisoned on any process for the recovery of any debt, damages or costs, contracted, owing or growing due, before the passing of this act, the court, before whom such process shall be returned, shall and may discharge such debtor or debtors out of custody, on his common appearance being entered, without any special bail; provided, that the discharge of such debtor or debtors shall not acquit any other person from such debt, damages or costs, or any part thereof, but that all such persons shall be answerable for the same in such manner as they were before the passing of this act.

XV. AND BE IT ENACTED, That all proceedings in chancery under this act shall be recorded by the register, who shall be entitled to the same fees as are fixed by law for services in other cases, which shall be paid at the time of obtaining the discharge.

XVI. AND BE IT ENACTED, That in all appointments of trustees under this act by the chancellor, in the room of any person before appointed, the chancellor shall consult the creditors, and govern himself by the choice of a majority of them in value, unless upon notice being given by public advertisement, or in such other manner as he shall think reasonable, the said creditors shall neglect to make such choice.

XVII. AND BE IT ENACTED, That none of the said debtors, who do not make application as Time limited, aforesaid on or before the first day of June next, shall have any benefit of this act.

An ACT for the relief of Samuel Turner Dyson, of Baltimore county, an insolvent debtor. Lib. JG. No. 2. fol. 750.

Passed 20th of
Jan. 1798.

WHEREAS Samuel Turner Dyson, of Baltimore county, has stated to this general assembly his inability to pay his debts, and has petitioned for an act to release him therefrom upon giving up all his property to the use of his creditors: And whereas the said Samuel Turner Dyson, being an officer in the army of the United States, is liable, from the military arrangements, to be called out of this state, which justifies a distinction of his case from others who have petitioned for similar acts;

II. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That in case the said Samuel Turner Dyson shall, before some justice of the peace for the county where he resides, make and subscribe the following oath, to wit: "I, Samuel Turner Dyson, do swear, or affirm, that I will deliver up, convey and transfer, to the use of my creditors, all my property, real, personal or mixed, (the necessary
