An ACT for the relief of James Brown and William Thompson, of Charles county, Frederick Kooness, of Prince-George's county, and John Kelly, of Montgomery county. Lib. JG. No. 3. fol. 280.

WHEREAS James Brown and William Thompson, of Charles county, Frederick Kooness, of Prince-George's county, and John Kelly, of Montgomery county, by their petitions to this general assembly have set forth, that from sundry misfortunes they are rendered unable to pay their debts; that they are now confined in gaol, where they must remain without any benefit to their creditors, while their large families are left helpless and destitute, and exposed to all the horrors and misery of want: And whereas the said James Brown, William Thompson, Frederick Kooness and John Kelly, have stated, that from ignorance of the law they have not taken the oaths of naturalization necessary to make them citizens of the United States, although they have resided in this state from ten to fifteen years, and have taken the oaths of allegiance thereto, and praying this general assembly to take the special circumstances of their case into consideration, and grant them relief in the premises; which being thought reasonable, therefore,

Preamble.

II. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the chancellor shall be and he is hereby authorized, on the application of the said James Brown, William Thompson, Frederick Kooness, and John Kelly, or either of them, by petition in writing, to be released from their debts, to extend to them the said James Brown, William Thompson, Frederick Kooness and John Kelly, all the provisions of the act of assembly passed at the last session, entitled, An act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, on the said James Brown, William Thompson, Frederick Kooness and John Kelly, satisfying the chancellor that they have fully complied with the condition and terms of said act; provided, that it shall not be necessary for the said James Brown, William Thompson, Frederick Kooness and John Kelly, to make it appear to the chancellor that they have been naturalized according to the law of the United States, any thing in said act to the contrary notwithstanding.

Provisions to be extended, &c.
