

CERTIFICATES.

their pay, bearing interest, and to be paid out of the confiscated property appropriated thereto. October, 1780, ch. 38, § 3.

— The interest to accrue from the first of August, 1780. May, 1781, ch. 35, § 3.

— The commencement of the interest to be expressed in the certificate. Ibid.

— Such certificates made assignable without any restraint. November, 1782, ch. 33, § 9.

— Such certificates to be given to the widows and children of officers who died in the service. October, 1780, ch. 38, § 5.

— A power reserved to the state to call in all such certificates, and pay them off in specie, or other current money equivalent. Ibid. § 7.

— Certain confiscated property pledged to secure the payment of the sums due on the said certificates. Ibid. § 11.

Persons enlisting under the terms then proposed, to be entitled to certificates for the depreciation of their pay, as directed by the act of October, 1780, ch. 38. Ibid. ch. 44.

Debts due from the state to be adjusted, and certificates, payable in specie, to be given for the balances due. May, 1781, ch. 17, § 2.

Manner of adjusting claims under the act of March, 1778, ch. 16. Ibid. § 5.

Directions respecting certificates offered in payment for confiscated property, sold under the act of October, 1780, ch. 38. Ibid. ch. 20.

— To the commissioners in adjusting the accounts of the troops. Ibid. ch. 35, § 2, 6, 8.

Certain descriptions of officers and men entitled to the benefit of the act of October, 1780, ch. 38. November, 1781, ch. 26, April, 1782, ch. 33, April, 1783, ch. 28.

Lands directed to be sold for payment of the certificates granted to the officers and soldiers. November, 1781, ch. 31, § 1, 2, 4.

— Certificates to be received in payment. Ibid. § 3.

— Terms of sale and payment. Ibid. § 4, 5.

— The treasurer directed to keep a particular account of the certificates and money received, and the money to be set apart for payment of the certificates or bonds taken, to be assigned. Ibid. § 8.

Certificates to be issued for the amount of debts against persons convicted of treason, and where property was or might be sold. April, 1782, ch. 36.

— To be issued for the amount of debts against British subjects convicted or attainted of treason, whose property was or might be confiscated, and provision made for their payment. November, 1782, ch. 24.

— A time limited for bringing in such claims. November, 1783, ch. 34.

— The provisions extended to citizens of other states having such claims. November, 1787, ch. 23.

The auditor-general directed to adjust the accounts of the troops, under the act of October, 1780, ch. 38, and the commissioner to deliver over to him the books, &c. November, 1782, ch. 33, § 6.

The auditor directed to charge the amount of the depreciation certificates to the United States. Ibid. § 7.

The funds of the state consolidated for payment of the debts due therefrom. 1784, ch. 55, § 1, 2.

— Creditors on certificates therein mentioned allowed to discount their claims. Ibid. § 5.

— Certain certificates fraudulently obtained not to be paid. Ibid. § 6.

— Certain certificates to be received for all arrearages of taxes due before the first of March, 1784. Ibid. § 8.

CERTIFICATES.

— Confiscated property to be sold for such certificates. Ibid. § 9.

Specie certificates directed to be received in payment of the 2/6 tax. Ibid. § 14.

The holders of specie certificates to receive specie or other certificates. Ibid. § 15.

Certificates to be issued in the form therein prescribed by the treasurer on account of money loaned to the state. 1785, ch. 88, § 1.

A person to be appointed by the governor and council to procure, by purchase or contract, certificates issued by congress, commonly called Final Settlement Certificates. Ibid. § 5.

Directions for the payment into the treasury of certificates received by the collector, and an oath to be administered to them by the treasurers to that effect. 1786, ch. 21, § 2.

— The collectors directed to give certificates and money in change. Ibid. § 5, 6.

Certificates directed to be issued for the amount of orders for services under the act of 1785, ch. 88. November, 1788, ch. 38, § 3.

— For money paid by the settlers in Cecil county on purchases from the state who had equitable titles under the state of Pennsylvania. Ibid. ch. 40, § 4.

Provision made for taking from the creditors of the state, subscribing to the loan proposed by congress, certificates of the United States, composing the three per cent. and the deferred stock, and delivering to them six per cent. stock. 1790, ch. 41.

Manner of renewing lost certificates. November, 1792, ch. 38.

Penalty on free negroes giving or selling their certificates of freedom. 1796, ch. 67, § 18.

Certificates to be given by the clerks of the amount of the allowance to jurymen in the general courts, which are to be paid by the treasurers out of any unappropriated money. 1797, ch. 94, § 2.

— An account of such certificates to be rendered by the clerks to the general assembly. Ibid. § 3.

A certificate of the granting letters testamentary, or of an administrator, shall be as available as an exhibit of such letters. 1798, No. 101, ch. 3, § 8.

The state's agent directed to render to the treasurer an account of his receipts of certificates, and to pay them to the treasurer, who shall, in his report, state particularly such receipts. 1799, ch. 80, § 19.

CERTIFICATES OF SURVEY.

See LAND.

CERTIORARI.

The allowance of a judge of the general court not necessary on a writ of certiorari. July, 1779, ch. 4, § 2.

On the application of a party, presented or indicted in the county court for any offence, to the general court, or in vacation to one of the judges, supported by evidence that a fair trial cannot be had in the county, a writ of certiorari may be ordered to remove the proceedings. 1790, ch. 50, § 2.

— Such writ may issue in like manner on an application on the part of the state. Ibid.

No indictment found before the justices of oyer and terminer and gaol delivery for Baltimore county shall be removed to the general court at the instance of the party prosecuted, without the leave of the said justices, or the special order of the general court, or some one of the judges thereof. 1799, ch. 58.

CHAIN-CARRIERS.

No person shall act as a chain-carrier unless he is sworn or affirmed to do his duty faithfully. April, 1782, ch. 38, § 3.

— The