

PARISHES.

Provision made for condemning land for parish churches. September, 1704, ch. 38, § 5.

An act for the division of Saint-Paul's parish, in Prince-George's county. Ibid. ch. 96.

North Elk parish erected in Cecil county. 1706, ch. 4.

The county courts empowered to regulate the bounds of parishes, and to have them recorded. 1713, ch. 10.

Part of Saint-Paul's parish, in Baltimore county, united to Westminster parish, in Anne-Arundel county. 1722, ch. 3.

Notice to be fixed at the parish churches by commissioners for obtaining evidences as to the boundaries of lands. 1723, ch. 8, § 4.

The vestry of Great Choptank parish, in Dorchester county, vested with an estate in fee in the lands therein mentioned. 1725, ch. 9.

The said parish divided, and a new one erected, by the name of Saint-Mary White Chapel Parish. Ibid. ch. 10.

Saint-John's parish, in Prince-George's county, to be divided, and a new one erected, by the name of Prince-George's Parish. 1726, ch. 6.

Queen-Caroline parish erected out of that part of Saint-Paul's parish lying in Anne-Arundel county, and out of All-Hallows parish and Saint-Anne's parish therein. 1728, ch. 15.

Saint-Paul's parish, in Queen-Anne's county and part of Talbot county, divided, and a new parish erected, by the name of Saint-Luke's. Ibid. ch. 19.

The entail cut off from the land in Queen-Caroline parish, in Anne-Arundel county, on which the church was built. April, 1737, ch. 12.

Saint-Paul's parish, in Baltimore, divided, and a new one erected, by the name of Saint-Thomas's. 1742, ch. 15.

Prince-George's parish, in Prince-George's county, divided, and a new one erected, by the name of All-Saints Parish. Ibid. ch. 18.

Saint-Stephen's, alias North Sassafras parish, in Cecil county, divided, and a new one erected, by the name of Augustine Parish. 1744, ch. 3.

Saint-Mary's county to be divided into four parishes. Ibid. ch. 14.

— A supplement. 1745, ch. 4.

That part of All-Faith and King and Queen parish lying in Charles county erected into a distinct parish, by the name of Trinity Parish. 1744, ch. 14, 1745, ch. 4.

All-Hallows parish, in Worcester county, to be divided, and a new one erected, by the name of Worcester Parish. 1744, ch. 24.

The bounds of King and Queen parish, in Saint-Mary's county, ascertained, and the same, and All-Faith parish, to be made complete parishes. 1748, ch. 4.

Saint-Paul's parish, in Queen-Anne's and Talbot counties, divided, and a new one erected, by the name of Saint-John's. Ibid. ch. 13.

Land to be secured for King-George's parish, in Prince-George's county, to build a chapel of ease on. Ibid. ch. 16.

The glebe-land in Saint-Paul's parish to be sold, and the money applied to the purchase of land in Baltimore-town. 1749, ch. 6.

Land to be purchased for Saint-George's parish, in Baltimore county. 1750, ch. 7.

Certain extra parochial lands in Worcester county annexed to the parish of All-Hallows. 1751, ch. 5.

Land to be sold by the vestry of Durham parish, in Charles county, and other land to be purchased for a glebe. Ibid. ch. 6.

Land to be purchased for Coventry parish, in Somerset and Worcester counties, to erect a chapel of ease on. 1762, ch. 16.

PARISHES.

— The same for Saint-Paul's parish, in Baltimore county. Ibid. ch. 25.

A church to be built in Saint-James's parish, in Anne-Arundel county. Ibid. ch. 28.

The parish of Saint-Margaret's Westminster, in Anne-Arundel county, empowered to sell land, and to purchase other land for a glebe. 1763, ch. 20.

Chester parish erected out of Saint-Paul's and Shrewsbury parishes, in Kent county. November, 1765, ch. 32.

The bounds and limits of Saint-Luke's, Christ Church and Saint-John's parishes, in Queen-Anne's county, and of Saint-Paul's parish, partly in Queen-Anne's county and partly in Talbot county, established and laid out anew. Ibid. ch. 37.

Saint-John's parish, in Baltimore county, divided, and a new one erected, by the name of Saint-James's Parish. September, 1770, ch. 18.

All-Saints parish, in Frederick county, divided, and two new parishes erected, by the names of Eden Parish and Frederick Parish. November, 1770, ch. 9.

The vestry of Saint-Paul's parish, in Baltimore county, empowered to exchange certain lands therein mentioned for the use of said parish, and to lease out other land, the rents to be applied to the use and maintenance of a minister. November, 1779, ch. 22.

The vestry, &c. of Shrewsbury parish, in Kent county, empowered to sell the glebe-land. April, 1783, ch. 14.

The glebe-land of Saint-Mary-Anne's parish, in Cecil county, directed to be sold. 1784, ch. 19.

A patent directed to issue to the vestry of Saint-Mary-Anne's parish, in Cecil county, for four acres of land therein mentioned, to be held to the use of the said parish. 1789, ch. 31.

The vestry of Saint-Paul's parish, in Baltimore county, permitted to receive a grant of the land and for the uses and purposes therein mentioned. 1790, ch. 4.

The right of the state in certain ground therein mentioned released to Saint-James's parish, in Baltimore county. 1791, ch. 5.

Commissioners appointed to sell ground belonging to Stepney parish, in Somerset county, and to apply the money. Ibid. ch. 6.

The vestry of Saint-Michael's parish, in Talbot county, empowered to exchange the lands therein mentioned. Ibid. ch. 15.

The vestry of Great Choptank parish empowered to sell the reversion of a lot in Cambridge, in Dorchester county. Ibid. ch. 18.

All-Saints parish, in Montgomery, Frederick, Washington and Allegany counties, divided, and a new one erected; to be called Saint-Peter's. November, 1792, ch. 31.

The title of the select vestry of Saint-John's parish, in Prince-George's county, confirmed, in and to three acres of ground in the said parish. 1793, ch. 72.

A new parish erected, to include the city of Washington and George-town and its addition, and to be called Washington's Parish. 1794, ch. 20.

The vestry of Saint-Paul's parish, in Baltimore county, enabled to purchase three acres of ground for the erection of churches, &c. Ibid. ch. 44.

The vestry of Saint-James's parish, in Anne-Arundel county, empowered to sell the tract of land therein mentioned, and to purchase another as a glebe for the rector. 1795, ch. 41.

The vestry of Christ Church parish, in Calvert county, enabled to sell the land therein mentioned, and apply the money. 1796, ch. 14.

The vestry of William and Mary parish, in Charles county, empowered to sell the negroes belonging thereto, and to invest the money in real or personal property. Ibid. ch. 47.

— Not more than £. 2000 to be vested in real estate, and such real estate to be conveyed to, and vested in, the vestry, as trustees of the parish. Ibid. § 3, 4.