

Masters of Ships Trading thither in pursuance of the Act of Navigation, and that counterfeit Certificates of Landing the Plantation Commodities in England, have been produced in discharge of some of the said Bonds, though the said Commodities were carryed directly to other parts than England, Wales or Berwick, As also fictitious Certificates of Bonds pretended to be given in England, Wales or Berwick when no such Bonds have been there really given. And moreover that several forged and counterfeit Coquetts, alledged to be granted in England have been accepted in Maryland, by colour whereof great quantities of European Goods have been there past as coming directly from England, Wales or Berwick, when as in truth the said Goods were shipped and Laden elsewhere, to the manifest prejudice of Our Customes, and the Trade and Navigation of this Our Kingdome, You are therefore to ca