

His Lord's Answer to the Clergy's Address
Baltimore

I am favour'd with your kind Address and well pleas'd with the Confidence you Express of my Care & Protection of the Church, from which I assure you, nothing shall alienate me; and I make no doubt of your good Offices towards promoting a perfect Understanding between the Proprietor & his Tenants; Peace & Harmony being the great Characteristics of our Mother Church.

Conou vera

His Lord's Instructions to Mat. Tilyman
Ward Esq^r Agent.

Charles Absolute Lord & Proprietor of Maryland & Avalon Lord Baron of Baltimore &c. Additional Baltimore Given by Us at Woodcote this 19th Day of July 1730.

1. You are immediately on receipt of this, to Proceed, with the utmost care & Diligence, to the Settling all arrears of Rents, Fines, Penalties & Forfeitures, that are due to me, from my Tenants in my respective manors, & make them render good payment. As to their bringing their Rents on