Christmas Day, to the Dwelling House of You my Agent, which by their Leases they are to do, you must oblige them, as far as is consistent with reason. —

2. I am very sensible of a great part of my Tenants principles in non payment of my Dues, not only in the manner of Susquehanna, but likewise in several others. You are upon their Non-compliance, to Consult with my Brother the Governor, and put in Execution proper Measures to force them. Indeed, where their Leases are Defective, & not well secured ^{to} them, as my desire is they should; My Order & Will is, & I do hereby Direct & Impower you with the Advice of my Brother the Governor, to Grant new Leases to them that are so found. — As to Mr. Talbot's Estate, 'tis forfeited to me, & as such shall keep & maintain it, & do expect to hear of your confirming Me in Possession of the said, & that you grant Leases as with the Advice aforesaid.

3. You are hereby directed to take upon you the Receivers place of my Mannor - Rents on the Western Shoar. As I sent Orders to my Brother the Governor concerning the said Mannors. I have send you Mr. Darnall's account, likewise Mr. Henry Brooker's, who receiv'd for him. The Tenants in general owe me great Arrears (particularly the Mannor of Panjah) which
