

fourteen Miles & $\frac{3}{4}$ of a Mile South of the Latitude of the most Southern part of the City of Philadelphia, the Temporary Jurisdiction over the same is agreed to be exercised by the Proprietors of Pennsylvania & their Governor Courts & Officers and as to all such vacant lands in Contest between the Proprietors & not now possessed by or under either of them, on both sides of the 1st. River Susquehanna South of the respective Southern Limits in the Paragraph before mentioned the Temporary Jurisdiction over the same is agreed to be exercised by the Proprietors of Maryland, & his Governor Courts & Officers without prejudice to either Proprietor & until the Boundaries shall be finally settled.

That the respective Proprietors shall be at free Liberty to Grant out on the common & usual Terms all or any vacant Lands within the 1st. Provinces of Pennsylvania & Maryland in Contest between the 1st. Proprietors (that is to say, within their own respective sides of the 1st. several Limits mentioned in the last foregoing Paragraph) for the which Lands & the profits of the same also each Proprietor shall account to the other, who may be adjudged to be the Proprietor thereof upon the final Determination of the Boundaries between the two Provinces.

That all prisoners on both sides on acct. of being concerned in any Riots or disturbances relating to the Bounds or for any act or Thing done thereto or for any other act touching the Right of either of the 1st. provinces in relation to their Bounds be forthwith released & discharged on entering into their own respective Recognizances in a reasonable sum to appear & submit to Trial when called on by further order for his Majesty.

That this be declared to be a provisional & Temporary order to continue until the Boundaries shall be finally settled & be declared to be without prejudice to either party.