

29

the present Lord, or the Executors of the late Lord! In answer thereto, as to the Bills for arrears due to the late Lord, they must be made payable to his Executors; but Bills for Moneys due to the present Lord must be made payable to him and to his Guardians; and in case any Action or Protests should be occasioned to be brought in either case, the one must be at the suit of the Executors of the late Lord, and the other at the suit of the Guardians of the present Lord.

On the Death of Thomas Brerewood Esq. who was by Permission of the late Lord Proprietary suffered to enjoy the Grant of Ten thousand acres the Request of Lady Baltimore, who devised the same to the Hon^{ble} Charlotte Brerewood. The Title to which, being only the gift of Charles Lord Baltimore the late Lord's Grand father, to his Lady. The late Lord by virtue of his Father's Marriage Articles, held the Tenure of paying a Bushel of Indian corn instead of ~~any~~ money, in Quit Rents, to be void; and as the said Thomas Brerewood is dead, you are desired to inform me in whose possession the said 10000. acres now are, and what rents for the use of the present Lord Proprietary are paid for the same.

Your Letter dated the 2.^d of last month with the Papers enclosed is just come to hand; to the matters contained therein, the Guardian now being out of Town, I cannot by this Conveyance give you an answer.

You have herewith an Instruction from the Guardian on the subject matter of this Letter, which I hope will enable you to perfect and do what is herein desired; and the Lieutenant Governor has also an Instruction, sent to him on the same subject.

I am very sorry that the observations of the Inaccuracies in the Debt Books sent over has occasioned the Guardians notice thereof; which inaccuracies I apprehend have proceeded from Persons intrusted by you, and as such, I represented the same to the Guardians on your behalf; assuring them of the Honour and integrity you have always bore in life, which I am very sensible of, and the Guardians thereupon were satisfied; not doubting but you will exert your self in obtaining what is now required. In the mean time you may depend upon the sincerity of my friendly Services to you. who am
Y^{our} real Friend and humble Servant
Cecil Calvert.
Post. The several matters of this Letter are drawn up by me pursuant to the Guardians Directions, to whom the same has been read.