

them to the place of their Settlement in Maryland, as by my said Letter will appear; which Services must be done at the most moderate Rate in respect to the Lord Proprietary Proprietor, and so as to answer such requisites as are necessary to their Service.

Yours of the 19th of April came to my hands after that of the 6th of May last, and I am very much obliged to you for your kind Reception of Mr. Bye who is a Relation of the Family

I make no manner of Doubt, nor if I think will his Lordship have at his coming of age, when I shall lay before him, the consequence of your several pecuniary transactions, how beneficial they have been to his Fathers Revenues, and are now established to his present Lordship; of which he certainly will be sensible when he considers the same, how they have been improved from time to time during your acting in the agent and Receiver General's office. — As to your resignation of this office, whereof you have wrote to My Lord, your Letter I have forwarded to His Lordship; but you must postpone all present Thoughts thereof until his Lordships coming of age; at ~~with~~ which time according to your desire My Lord will give you his Information concerning the same, which I shall apprise his Lordship of, It being your Request.

As to Susquehanna manner, I cannot at present send you the proof as you desire concerning the ~~Salts~~ Forfeiture of the same; but I have spoke to Mr. Sharpe one of his Lordships Guardians, who has directed me to give orders to Mr. Hamersley his Clerk and a Solicitor at Law to make the Inquiry and to obtain proper Evidence thereof from the Commissioners of the Forfeited Estates in the Year 1715. in which I shall loose no time in obtaining and sending to your care.

Hereis