

of the Leases; The value as stated by Mr. Tasker under the present Grants is £. 288. - p^a ann, and such a property can't be deem'd inconsiderable.

I have inclosed yours to Mylord abroad, and I do assure you at all times, whatever Determinations Mylord is willing to make in your favour shall always meet with my Approbation to your Service. Being with Esteem,
Truly

Your most obedient humble Servant.
Cecil^{us} Calvert.

God: I hope you will exert your self in the Support of Mr. Tasker's Administration of the Government.

The Hon^{ble} Cecilus Calvert Esq^r. His Lordship's Secretary of Maryland to Edward Loyd Esq^r. in that Province. on Mr. Tasker's desiring leave to resign his Office of Agent and Receiver General, and the proposing to Mr. Loyd the acceptance of that office when vacant.

London July the 9th 1752.

Sir.

By a Letter from Mr. Tasker dated at Annapolis the 19th of April 1752, wherein he mentions his want of health will no longer permit him to execute His Lordship's business and Transactions as Agent and Receiver General of his Province; and he has wrote to Mylord on the same subject desiring his Lordship's leave to resign the said office. In answer thereto