

The Hon^{ble}. Cecilius Calvert Esq^r. His Lordship's Secre-tary of Maryland to the Reverend Mr. Thomas Bacon here forwarding the Lord Proprietary's Letter to him from abroad.

London September 14th. 1752 N.S.

Sir,

Inclosed I send you a Letter I received from My Lord Proprietary abroad for You. As I am concern'd for his Lordship in the capacity as Secretary of his Province; I may leave to assure you, no one Reverence more the Body of the Clergy in the Province, or will be more glad of Instances to their Service, than I shall be. In which they or You may Commend him, who is with real Esteem

Sir

Your friend and most obedient Servant.

Cecil. Calvert.

See Postscript to this after the Letter from the Lord Proprietary to the Reverend Mr. Thomas Bacon, being added since the above Entry
