Trustees appointed in the will of the late Lord Proprietary in relation to the Bills of Exchange as to what you wrote me viz<sup>t</sup>.
" That you have not received one of the several Bills re" mitted these last twelve months protested, or advise that " they are come to hand; except those by Riggs.

Mr. Browning says & assures me he has advised you of them, and also has return'd you Bills with Protests; which I hope you have received since yours of the 23. of June last to me.

My Nephew The Lord Proprietary is arrived in good health from his Travels, he will with the Advice of his Guardians consider & now proceed to nominate at first upon a proper Person for his Lieutenant Governor of Maryland.
As to such Lieutenant Governor's Departure for the Province
I think it certainly will by the first Ship after his Lordship comes of age in February next.

I am with Sincerity

your truly obedient humble Servant

Cecil Calvert.

Post: According to your Desire I offer'd the rights of the Papers you sent of and about Dr. Brookes, to Mr.
Bladen for his Counsel, he told at some I said to this Effect.
That what Brookes alledged against him was false, that his Principles never coincided with Romish Tenets, nor had the Followers of such Doctrine in Religion at any Time of his Life been the Favourites of him, That during his Administration of the Government of Maryland, he had acted consistent with real Justice & according to Law & the
