mittance of the Salary from the Commissary's office, also desiring his Correspondence. & on D: Brookes's Affair.

London September 25. 1752. N. S.

Sir.

I have Yours of the 23^d of July last by Mr Aderson, at the same time he paid me one hundred pounds by your order & to your account arising from the Commissary's office you hold, and for a years Salary from the 17th of August 1751. the date of my Commission to the 17th of last month, agreeable to his Lordship's & Mr Sh^{er}per's Letters wrote to the late Governor, on an Appointment to me of salary, as Secretary, vide my Commission in the Secretary's office in Maryland.
A Copy of the Lord Proprietary's Letter to the late Governor
I have transmitted to Mr Tarker, to which I refer you, & of which I shall not doubt your future acting accordingly. I thank you for your Testimony of Service, you may depend upon my Zeal for yours, not actuated by pecuniary interest. As to my Salary, I hope it makes no Person uneasy, as it is a Recompence for my real Ex-pences, Trouble & Endeavours in Office to the Lord Proprietary, the Persons in the Administration of Government, and the welfare of the Province in general, as to all Affairs from England;
