

187

Act was repealed by an Act of Assembly the 20th of May 1717 and also one other Act made the 6th of March 1707. suspending the Exemption of some clauses of the afore mentioned act, until her Majestys further Pleasure should be declared & signified therein, concerning which suspension Act sundry great Disputes arise among the Romanists: For Removal of such Disputes An Act of Parliament made the eleventh & twelfth of William the 3^d was incorporated into the said act of 1717. which recites there is good provision in the said Act of William the 3^d to prevent the Growth of Popery as well in this Province as throughout all others of his Majestys Dominions; and that an Act of Assembly of this Province can in no ways alter the Effect of that Statute, therefore the said Act of Assembly in 1704. to prevent the growth of Popery was thereby repealed

The said Statute of William the 3^d Intituled an Act for the further preventing the Growth of Popery. Enacts inter alias. viz^t

Section 1st " £100. Reward for taking Popish Bishops,
" Priests or Jesuits."

Sto 3^d " Penalty on a Popish Bishop, Priest &c saying Mass
" or Exercising any office of a Popish Bishop or " Priest within these Reales or the Dominions
" thereunto belonging. — or if any Priest or Person " professing the Popish Religion shall keep any " school or take the Education or Government " or Boarding of Persons. Such Person or Persons " being being lawfully convicted shall on such con" viction be adjudged to perpetual imprisonment &c.

Sto 6th " Person sending a Child. — beyond Sea to be educated " in the Romish Religion to forfeit a £100.

In your answer you don't mention this Statute, But say, in the Year 1717 the afore said first Act (i.e 1704) to prevent the Growth